Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,L.W. Conolly,2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Perspectives on Indian Fiction in English M. K. Naik,1985 This is the fourth and final volume in the pioneering series on Perspectives on Ma or Forms of indian English Literature edited by Professor M K Naik Following the pattern of the earlier three volumes this collection also includes two types of essays those evaluating the entire corpus of major fictionists and schools and those attempting intensive textual analyses of outstanding novels like Untouchable The Guide The Serpent and the Rope and Midnight s children The final essay on The Achievement of Indian Fiction in English is an attempt to survey the entire field and evaluate the total achievement in this genre A number of collections of critical essays on Indian fiction in English have appeared during recent years but perhaps none of them has the range and depth of this volume The contributors include distinguished scholars such as K R Srinivasa Iyengar V A Shahane D V K Raghavacharyulu PremaNandakumar and the editor M K Naik himself The carefully selective Bibliography appended to the volume has further enhanced its value as a comprehensive collection of incisive critical studies covering the entire range of Indian fiction in English and this series which is now complete easily constitutes a significant landmark in the ongoing scrutiny of Indian English literature The River Rubicon William Hunt,2013-03-29 Richard Easons father committed suicide when Richard was ten years old and the memory of the event has haunted the young man ever since His father was a rising star among southern architects when he killed himself and Richard has followed in his fathers footsteps as an architecture student at Georgia Tech Still the mystery of his fathers death will not leave him alone and the mystery soon becomes an obsession Meanwhile with the help of his fathers friend Tanny he labors with clever almost maniacal passion to build a replica of the magnificent airy cabin his father had designed built and perished in So much of Richards character has been shaped in some way by the night his father died Now Tanny might be a guiding light for young Richard as he searches for answers Along with Tanny Richard has his girlfriend Lefay an ex hippie turned corporate executive who calls him Reason Even with the help of friends however Richard has trouble keeping a grasp on reality He digs deeper and deeper into his fathers life but he might soon find spending so much time in the past brings disaster upon the present Hi Fi/stereo
