What Makes Me A Muslim:

What Makes Me a Muslim? Catherine M. Petrini, 2005 Discusses the beginnings of Islam what Muslims believe how they practice their faith their religious holidays and the challenges facing their religion Muslims and Political Participation in Britain Timothy Peace, 2015-05-01 This new volume showcases the latest research into Muslim political participation both in terms of electoral politics and civil society initiatives Muslims play a prominent role in British political life yet what do we actually know about the involvement of British Muslims beyond the existence of a handful of Muslim MPs What is unique about political participation in Muslim communities All the major parties actively seek to court a Muslim electorate but does such a phenomenon exist Despite the impact that Muslims have had on election campaigns and their roles in various political institutions research on this topic remains scant Indeed much of the existing work was couched within the broader areas of the participation of ethnic minorities or the impact of race on electoral politics The chapters in this volume address this lacuna by highlighting different aspects of Muslim participation in British politics They investigate voting patterns and election campaigns civil society and grassroots political movements the engagement of young people and the participation of Muslims in formal political institutions Written in an accessible style this book will be of interest to students and scholars of political participation and religious studies Muslims Making British Media Carl Morris, 2022-11-17 A seminal examination of Muslim cultural production in contemporary Britain including music film comedy television and theatre Australian Muslim Women's Borderland Subjectivities Lutfiye Ali, 2024-01-19 This book claims a discursive space in academic scholarship for knowledges and ways of knowing that capture the diversity complexity and full humanness of Australian Muslim women's subjectivities It draws on in depth conversational interviews with 20 Australian Muslim women from various ethnic backgrounds during which the women shared their experiences of being at the crossroads of their religious gendered racialised and ethnic identities The book puts forward a decolonial feminist border methodology by weaving the work of decolonial feminist philosophers Maria Lugones and Gloria Anzald a with postmodern feminist thinking on subjectivity and with discourse analysis This methodology is used to centre and attend to the fluidity and plurality of Muslim women's subjectivities at the intersections of race ethnicity patriarchy gender sexuality and Islam Islamic Review and Muslim India, 1913 European Muslims Transforming the Public Sphere Asmaa Soliman, 2017-11-28 Anti Muslim voices have become louder in many places in the midst of ongoing atrocities undertaken in the name of Islam As a result much of the creative participation of Western Muslims in the public sphere has become overshadowed This tendency is not only visible in political discussions and the media landscape but it is also often reflected in academia where research about Muslims in the West is predominantly shaped by the post 9 11 narrative In contrast European Muslims Transforming the Public Sphere offers a paradigm shift It puts forward a new approach to understanding minority public engagement suggesting that we need to go beyond conceptualisations that look at Muslims in the West mainly through the minority lens By bringing into dialogue minority specific and non minority specific concepts the book offers a relevant complement Using young German Muslims engaged in media the arts and culture and civil society as ten case studies this book utilises the concepts of counterpublics and participatory culture to re examine Muslims engagement within the European public sphere It presents a qualitative analysis which has resulted from two years of ethnographic fieldwork and participant observation in depth interviews and primary source analysis of material produced by the research participants This book is a unique insight into the outworking of multiculturalism in Western Europe It illustrates the many sidedness of young Muslims public contributions revealing how they transform European public spheres in different ways Therefore it will be a vital resource for any scholar involved in Islamic Studies the Sociology of Religion Religious Studies Cultural Studies and Media Studies
