Wild Zone:

Feminisms Robyn R. Warhol, Diane Price Herndl, 1997 In the landmark 1991 edition of Feminisms Robyn Warhol and Diane Price Herndl assembled the most comprehensive collection of American and British feminist literary criticism ever to be published In this revised edition the editors have updated the volume in keeping with the expanded parameters of feminist literary discourse With the inclusion of more than two dozen new essays along with a major reorganization of the sections in which they appear Warhol and Price Herndl have again established the measure for representing the latest developments in the field of feminist literary theory Believing that the feminist movement can only move forward where difference commands attention not dismissal or negativism they have continued the original collection's mission of providing a multiplicity of perspectives and approaches This anthology contains three new sections Conflict Gaze and Practice and includes more selections by and about women of color and lesbians Aimed at academics and the general public alike this collection is an indispensable guide to the range of practice on campus today in the field of feminist literary criticism Toni Morrison Carmen Gillespie, 2012-11-30 Toni Morrison the only living American Nobel laureate in literature published her first novel in 1970 In the ensuing forty plus years Morrison's work has become synonymous with the most significant literary art and intellectual engagements of our time The publication of Home May 2012 as well as her 2011 play Desdemona affirm the range and acuity of Morrison's imagination Toni Morrison Forty Years in The Clearing enables audiences readers critics and students to review Morrison's cultural and literary impacts and to consider the import and influence of her legacies in her multiple roles as writer editor publisher reader scholar artist and teacher over the last four decades Some of the highlights of the collection include contributions from many of the major scholars of Morrison's canon as well as art pieces music photographs and commentary from poets Nikki Giovanni and Sonia Sanchez novelist A J Verdelle playwright Lydia Diamond composer Richard Danielpour photographer Timothy Greenfield Sanders the first published interview with Morrison's friends from Howard University Florence Ladd and Mary Wilburn and commentary from President Barack Obama What distinguishes this book from the many other publications that engage Morrison's work is that the collection is not exclusively a work of critical interpretation or reference This is the first publication to contextualize and to consider the interdisciplinary artistic and intellectual impacts of Toni Morrison using the formal fluidity and dynamism that characterize her work This book adopts Morrison's metaphor as articulated in her Pulitzer Prize winning novel Beloved The narrative describes the clearing as a wide open place cut deep in the woods nobody knew for what In the heat of every Saturday afternoon she sat in the clearing while the people waited among the trees Morrison's Clearing is a complicated and dynamic space Like the intricacies of Morrison's intellectual and artistic voyages the Clearing is both verdant and deadly a sanctuary and a prison Morrison's vision invites consideration of these complexities and confronts these most basic human conundrums with courage resolve and grace This collection attempts to reproduce the character and spirit of this metaphorical terrain Writing Across Cultures Omar

Sougou,2002 This is a timely and comprehensive study combining various critical approaches to the fiction of Buchi Emecheta one of Africa s most illustrious and contentious women writers Feminist Showalter Cixous Kristeva and postcolonial approaches writing back are taken to Emecheta s texts to illuminate the personal political and aesthetic ramifications of the production of this born writer Poststructural programmes of analysis are shown to be less relevant to this writer s fiction than Marxist and Bakhtinian perspectives Emecheta is shown to be a bridge builder between two cultures and two worlds in narratives both challenging and popular characterized by ambiguity ambivalence and double voiced discourse all of which evince the writer s determination to expose imaginatively the colonial heritage of centre periphery conflicts cultural corruption ethnic discrimination gender oppression and the migrant experience in multiracial communities
