The New Yorker is of course a bastion of superb essays influential investigative journalism and insightful arts criticism But for eighty years it's also been a hoot In fact when Harold Ross founded the legendary magazine in 1925 he called it a comic weekly and while it has grown into much more it has also remained true to its original mission Now an uproarious sampling of its funny writings can be found in a hilarious new collection one as satirical and witty misanthropic and menacing as the first Fierce Pajamas From the 1920s onward but with a special focus on the latest generation here are the humorists who set the pace and stirred the pot pulled the leg and pinched the behind of America S J Perelman unearths the furious letters of a foreign correspondent in India to the laundry he insists on using in Paris Who charges six francs to wash a cummerbund Woody Allen recalls the Whore of Mensa who excites her customers by reading Proust or if you want two girls will explain Noam Chomsky Steve Martin's pill bottle warns us of side effects ranging from hair that smells of burning tires to teeth receiving radio broadcasts Andy Borowitz provides his version of theater lobby notices In Act III there is full frontal nudity but not involving the actor you would like to see naked David Owen's rules for dating his ex wife start out magnanimous and swiftly disintegrate into sarcasm self loathing and rage and Noah Baumbach unfolds a history of his last relationship in the form of Zagat reviews Meanwhile off in a remote willage in Normandy David Sedaris is drowning a mouse This was for the best whether the mouse realized it or not Plus asides fancies rebukes and musings from Patty Marx Calvin Trillin Bruce McCall Garrison Keillor Veronica Geng Ian Frazier Roy Blount Jr and many others If laughter is the best medicine Disquiet Please is truly a wonder drug
