Spewing Pulp Gregory Blair, 2004-04 Its irreverent laugh out loud misadventures and musings burst with poetry and profanity hilarity and heartbreak unashamed intimacy and engaging universality The Rise and Fall of Gunns Ltd Quentin Beresford, 2015-02-01 At its peak Gunns Ltd had a market value of 1 billion was listed on the ASX 200 was the largest employer in the state of Tasmania and its largest private landowner Most of its profits came from woodchipping mainly from clear felled old growth forests A pulp mill was central to its expansion plans Its collapse in 2012 was a major national news story as was the arrest of its CEO for insider trading Quentin Beresford illuminates for the first time the dark corners of the Gunns empire He shows it was built on close relationships with state and federal governments political donations and use of the law to intimidate and silence its critics Gunns may have been single minded in its pursuit of a pulp mill in Tasmania s Tamar Valley but it was embedded in an anti democratic and corrupt system of power supported by both main parties business and unions Simmering opposition to Gunns and all it stood for ramped up into an environmental campaign not seen since the Franklin Dam protests Fearless and forensic in its analysis the book shows that Tasmania s decades long quest to industrialise nature fails every time But the collapse of Gunns is the most telling of them all This is a tale that needed telling It is an important case history in environmental campaigning and a must read for anyone interested in fairness and transparency in government Geoffrey Cousins AM businessman and president of the Australian Conservation Foundation
