The Child Goes Forth:

A Child Goes Forth Barbara J. Taylor, 1980 The Mundialization of Home in the Age of Globalization In-Suk Cha, 2012
This book examines the worldwide cultural diffusion which along with economic globalization is ever widening the boundaries of an individual and a group's homeworld as alien cultures are absorbed into each other. This process is called the mundialization of home. The spherical movement of capital, goods, technology, and workforce across national borders is also accompanied by spread of ideas, beliefs, values, and customs among diverse cultures. And as people in newly emerging market societies are being brought to self-awareness as individual citizens, they have begun to address issues of individual freedom, social justice, human rights, global environmental change, and civil society. Series: Philosophy in International Context, Philosophie im Internationalen Kontext Vol 6.

The Court Midwife Justine Siegemund, 2007-11-01. First published in 1690. The Court Midwife made Justine Siegemund 1636-1705 the spokesperson for the art of midwifery at a time when most obstetrical texts were written by men. More than a technical manual, The Court Midwife contains descriptions of obstetric techniques of midwifery and its attendant social pressures. Siegemund's visibility as a writer, midwife, and proponent of an incipient professionalism accorded her a status virtually unknown to German women in the seventeenth century. Translated here into English for the first time, The Court Midwife contains riveting birthing scenes, sworn testimonials by former patients, and a brief autobiography.

Transcendental Wordplay Michael West, 2000. Throughout the first half of the nineteenth century, America was captivated by a muddled notion of etymology. New England Transcendentalism was only one outcropping of a nationwide movement in which schoolmasters across small-town America taught students the roots of words in ways that dramatized religious issues and sparked wordplay. Shaped by this ferment, our major Romantic authors shared the sensibility that Friedrich Schlegel linked to punning and christened Romantic irony. Notable punsters or etymologists all, they gleefully set up as sages, creating jocular masterpieces from their zest for oracular wordplay. Their search for a primal language lurking beneath all natural languages provided them with something like a secret language that encodes their meanings. To fathom their essentially comic masterpieces, we must decipher it. Interpreting Thoreau as an ironic moralist, satirist, and social critic rather than a nature-loving mystic, Transcendental Wordplay suggests that the major American Romantics shared a surprising conservatism. In this award-winning study, Professor West rescues the pun from critical contempt and allows readers to enjoy it as a serious form of American humor.

Sophia Christopher Pramuk, 2009-10-01. While numerous studies have celebrated Thomas Merton's witness as an interfaith pioneer, poet, and peacemaker, there have been few systematic treatments of his Christology, as such, and no sustained exploration to date of his relationship to the Russian Sophia tradition. This book looks to Thomas Merton as a classic theologian of the Christian tradition from East to West and offers an interpretation of his mature Christology with special attention to his remarkable prose poem of 1962, Hagia Sophia. Bringing Merton's mystical prophetic vision fully into dialogue with contemporary Christology, Russian sophiology and Zen as well as figures such as John Henry Newman and Abraham Joshua Heschel the author carefully but boldly builds the case that Sophia the same theological eros that animated Merton s religious imagination in a period of tremendous fragmentation and violence might infuse new vitality into our own A study of uncommon depth and scope inspired throughout by Merton s extraordinary catholicity Christopher Pramuk PhD is assistant professor of theology at Xavier University in Cincinnati Ohio He is the author of two books and numerous essays and the recipient of the Catholic Theological Society of America s 2009 Catherine Mowry LaCugna Award Social Criticism and Nineteenth-Century American Fictions Robert Shulman,1989 The changing market society of the nineteenth century had a deep impact on American writers and their works The writers responded with important insights into the alienation brought on by the country s capitalist development Shulman uses theorists from Tocqueville to Gramsci and the New Left historians as well as drawing on other recent historical and critical studies to examine major nineteenth century American works as they illuminate and are illuminated by their society Using works by Benjamin Franklin Mark Twain Herman Melville Nathaniel Hawthorne Charles Chesnutt Walt Whitman Edith Wharton and Theodore Dreiser he shows the urgency energy and variety of response that capitalism elicited from a range of writers Proceedings of the American Medico-Psychological Association ,1913 The Family Friend ,1886 The Child ,1918 Education pamphlets ,1930 Johns Hopkins Medical Journal ,1893 Bulletin of the Johns Hopkins Hospital ,1893 The Woman who Never Did Wrong Katherine Eleanor Conway,1909 The American Catholic Quarterly Review ... ,1878 The Children's Crusade Gabriel Pierné,1906 Under the Microscope Algernon Charles Swinburne,1899 Poet Lore ,1922 College life in Edinburgh, 1815-1824 Thomas Guthrie,David Kelley Guthrie,1875 Autobiography of Thomas Guthrie, D.
