The Golden Triangle:

The Golden Triangle Ko-lin Chin,2011-02-23 The Golden Triangle region that joins Burma Thailand and Laos is one of the global centers of opiate and methamphetamine production Opportunistic Chinese businessmen and leaders of various armed groups are largely responsible for the manufacture of these drugs The region is defined by the apparently conflicting parallel strands of criminality and efforts at state building a tension embodied by a group of individuals who are simultaneously local political leaders drug entrepreneurs and members of heavily armed militias Ko lin Chin a Chinese American criminologist who was born and raised in Burma conducted five hundred face to face interviews with poppy growers drug dealers drug users armed group leaders law enforcement authorities and other key informants in Burma Thailand and China The Golden Triangle provides a lively portrait of a region in constant transition a place where political development is intimately linked to the vagaries of the global market in illicit drugs Chin explains the nature of opium growing heroin and methamphetamine production drug sales and drug use He also shows how government officials who live in these areas view themselves not as drug kingpins but as people who are carrying the responsibility for local economic development on their shoulders

Chasing the Dragon Christopher R. Cox,2014-05-13 Chasing the Dragon is the story of a Boston Herald reporter s journey into Burma Myanmar to interview the mysterious drug lord Khun Sa The features desk of an American newspaper may seem an unlikely launchpad for a journey into one of the world s most remote and dangerous regions but for journalist Christopher Cox it was where the story began It would end nearly three years later in the almost inaccessible mountain fastnesses of Shan State Burma as Cox brought off a journalistic coup even hard bitten foreign correspondents might envy a rare personal audience with General Khun Sa the man U S law enforcement dubbed The Prince of Death the man thought to control a third of the world s supply of heroin Accompanied by an obsessed Vietnam vet who had given up everything in his single minded search for American POWs left behind in Southeast Asia and an eccentric expat with close personal ties to the general Cox was going to cross forbidden borders to enter a region long off limits to Westerners And armed with little more than a backpack stuffed with vodka porno tapes and cigarettes he was going to succeed His journey would take him deep into the Golden Triangle a shadowy zone of banditry drug smuggling and the ghost armies of past wars He would begin in the red light district of Bangkok with its sex bars and soaring HIV rates then head up into northern borderlands newly discovered by package tour groups and finally cross a jungled no man s land into the world of the Shan where tough tribesmen trade opium and precious gemstones for the arms they need to fight the Burmese
