The Painting:

The Painting Master's Shame Amy McNair, 2024-09-09 Overturning the long held assumption that the Xuanhe Catalogue of Paintings was the work of the Northern Song emperor Huizong r 1100 1126 Amy McNair argues that it was compiled instead under the direction of Liang Shicheng Liang a high ranking eunuch official who sought to raise his social status from that of despised menial to educated elite had privileged access to the emperor and palace McNair s study based on her translation and extensive analysis of the text of the Xuanhe Catalogue of Paintings offers a definitive argument for the authorship of this major landmark in Chinese painting criticism and clarifies why and how it was compiled The Painting Master s Shame describes the remarkable circumstances of the period around 1120 when the catalogue was written The political struggles over the New Policies the promotion of the scholar amateur ideal in painting criticism and practice and the rise of eunuch court officials as a powerful class converged to allow those officials the unprecedented opportunity to enhance their prestige through scholarly activities and politics McNair analyzes the catalogue s central polemical narrative the humiliation of the high ranking minister mistakenly called by the lowly title Painting Master as the key to understanding Liang Shicheng s methods and motives

The Painter's Practice James Cahill, 1994 His work fills in the hitherto unexplored social and economic contexts in which painters worked revealing the details of how painters in China actually made their living from the sixteenth century onward

The Painter and Decorator ,1918 Inside the Painter's Studio Joe Fig, 2009-09-02 Inside the Painter s Studio collects twenty four remarkable artist interviews as well as exclusive visual documentation of their studios Originally intended to serve as research material these collected interviews emerged as an incredibly useful resource for painters or anyone curious about how and where art gets made Featured artists ranging from those already in the history books to those on the cusp of renown are asked a wide range of questions about their day to day creative lives covering everything from how they organize their studios to what painting tools they prefer Artists open up about how they set a creative mood how they choose titles and even whether they sit or stand to contemplate their work

House Painting and Decorating ... A. Ashmun Kelly, Frederick Maire, Arthur Seymour Jennings, 1893 Conservation of Easel Paintings Joyce Hill Stoner, Rebecca Rushfield, 2013-02-15 Conservation of Easel Paintings is the first comprehensive text on the history philosophy and methods of treatment of easel paintings that combines both theory with practice With contributions from an international group of experts and interviews with important artists this volume provides an all encompassing guide to necessary background knowledge in technical art history artists materials scientific methods of examination and documentation with sections that present varying approaches and methods for treatment including consolidation lining cleaning retouching and varnishing The book concludes with a section featuring issues of preventive conservation storage shipping exhibition lighting safety issues and public outreach Conservation of Easel Paintings is a crucial resource in the training of conservation students and will provide generations of practicing paintings conservators
