Wild Decembers:

Wild Decembers Edna O'Brien, 2020-10-20 In this beautiful and lush novel the renowned Irish author encapsulates the afflictions of a culture within the afflictions of a particular doomed family The New York Times Book Review Wild Decembers charts the quick and critical demise of relations between Joseph Brennan and Mick Bugle the warring sons of warring sons in the countryside of Western Ireland With her gift for describing the occasions of heartbreak O'Brien elevates Joseph's love for his land to the level of his sister Breege's love for both him and his rival Bugler Breege sees the wrong of years and the recent wrongs fuel each other as Bugler comes to claim recently inherited acreage on what her brother calls my mountain A classic drama ensues involving the full range of bonds and betrayals and leavened by the human comedy of which Edna O'Brien rarely loses sight Wild Decembers Edna O'Brien, 1999 This novel is concerned with murder revenge and the ownership of land in contemporary Ireland Wild Decembers Hilda White, 1963 Wild Decembers Clemence Dane, 1937 Wild Decembers Clemence Dane, 1932 Wild Decembers Edna O'Brien, 2001-05-01 Wild Decembers Clemence Dane, Brontë family, 1946 From Wild Decembers Edna O'Brien, 2000 Wild Decembers Winifred Ashton, 1932

Wild Decembers Clemence Dane, 1932 Clemence Dane Louise McDonald, 2020-08-31 This feminist investigation of the works of Clemence Dane joins the growing body of research into the relationship of female authored texts to the ideology and cultural hegemony of the Edwardian and inter war period An amalgam of single author study and thematic period analysis through sustained cultural engagement this book explores Dane's journalism drama and fiction to interrogate a range of issues inter war women's writing the Middlebrow feminism homo sexuality liberal politics domesticity and concepts of the spinster It examines form and a range of fictional genres drama bildungsroman detective fiction historical saga and gothic fiction It relates back to the genre writing of comparable authors These include Rosamond Lehmann Vita Sackville West Ivy Compton Burnett Dorothy Strachey Dodie Smith Rachel Ferguson May Sinclair Sylvia Townsend Warner Daphne Du Maurier G B Stern and detective writers Dorothy L Sayers Agatha Christie Gladys Mitchell Marjorie Allingham and Ngaio Marsh Offering a picture of an era focalised through Dane and contextualised through her journalism and the work of her female peers it argues that Dane is often markedly more radically feminist than these contemporaries She engages with broad issues of social justice irrespective of gender and her humanity is demonstrated through her sympathetic representations of marginalised characters of both sexes However she most specifically evidences a gender politics consistent with the fragmented and multifarious essentialist feminism that emerged following the Great War which esteemed womanly qualities of care and mothering but simultaneously valued female autonomy single status and professionalism Adopting the critical paradigms of domestic modernism and women's liminality the book will particularly focus on the trajectories of Dane's extraordinary modern heroines who possess qualities of altruism candour integrity imagination intuition resilience and rebelliousness Over the course of her work these fictional women increasingly challenge oppressive normative forms of domesticity traversing physical thresholds to create alternative domesticities in self defining living and working spaces

Fiction and 'The Woman Question' from 1850 to 1930 W. R. Owens, Alexis Weedon, Nicola Darwood, 2020-07-02 This book is about how The Woman Question was represented in works of fiction published between 1850 and 1930 The essays here offer a wide ranging and original approach to the ways in which literature shaped perceptions of the roles and position of women in society Debates over The Woman Question encompassed not only the struggle for voting rights but gender equality more widely The book reaches beyond the usual canonical texts to focus on writers who have in the main attracted relatively little critical attention in recent years Stella Benson Kate Chopin Marie Corelli Dinah Mulock Craik Clemence Dane Arthur Conan Doyle George Gissing Ouida and William Hale White who wrote under the pseudonym Mark Rutherford These writers dealt imaginatively with issues such as marriage motherhood sexual desire adultery and suffrage and they represented female characters who in varying degrees and with mixed success sought to defy the social sexual and political constraints placed upon them The collection as a whole demonstrates how fiction could contribute in striking and memorable ways to debates over gender equality debates which continue to have relevance in the twenty first century
