over the last thirty years Written at a time when the natural world everywhere is being heedlessly plundered and exploited as never before these recollections impassioned comic ironic and critical by turn are a reminder that in everything but multi national corporate cupidity the damage may well be irreparable Whether drifting in a fishing boat among lurking pods of unpredictable hippos down the Zambezi tracing the demise of the hapless Dodo in Mauritius trekking for lowland gorillas in the rainforests of south east Nigeria in the company of a wryly erudite local parks ranger or pondering the Stone Age mind set of wealthy trophy hunters the author s exhilaration for wildlife and nature glows through the prism of a gradually darkening lens The current state of our natural world may look bleak but giving up on it as he reminds us is not an option
