Wild Prayer Of Longing:

Religion and Literature Robert Detweiler, David Jasper, 2000-01-01 Featuring a selection from over 80 key texts this anthology aims to help the reader to understand the common origins of religious expression and of literature The texts included cover classical literature the Bible English and European classics and contemporary works The Wild Prayer of Longing, 1971 The Wild Prayer of Longing. Poetry and the Sacred, 1971 The Wild Prayer of Longing Nathan A. Scott, 1971 Nathan Scott's Literary Criticism and Fundamental Theology William D. Buhrman, 2006 Nathan Scott's Literary Criticism and Fundamental Theology reexamines the pioneering contribution of Nathan A Scott Jr to the field of theology and literature It both recalls Scott's achievement and suggests its continuing value by focusing on the question of Scott's method Rather than following the traditional interpretation of Scott as a literary critic employing Paul Tillich's theology of culture this book proposes that Scott's work is best understood as a form of fundamental theology In doing so it suggests that Scott's work models ways in which literary texts may be appropriately incorporated into theological discourse Publisher's website Caught Reading Again R.S. Sugirtharajah, 2013-02-12 Contributors to this collection have been asked to re read the book that inspired them the most at the outset of their career or earlier and then describe what that book offers them now and how the book and the reader have changed be it theologically culturally politically personally or professionally since that first inspiring read Each chapter reads differently the tone changing from author to author depending on their various social and political locations their gender and ethnic differences Contributors represent different disciplines Systematic Theology Biblical Studies Cultural and English Studies The selection also reflects male and female centre and margin Black and White representations Each is a very well established figure in their field and more crucially they are at the stage in their career to undertake the type of exercise envisioned in this exciting and unusual project Autobiographical criticism is a growing tool in most academic fields and here for the first time a group of eminent theologians ask themselves about the relationship between the reader and the book Each scholar addresses the book's original context and the present context their theological and hermeneutical journey how the theological landscape has changed over the years for them the memories these re readings bring their prejudices theological likes and dislikes and how these have shaped their theological thinking today Contributions from dynamic thinkers from around the globe include Stephen Moore Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza Regina Schwartz Fernando Segovia Laura Donaldson Kwok Pui Lan Alice Bach Roland Boer Archie Lee Elsa Tamez Christopher Rowland Yvonne Sherwood Sharon Ringe Tina Pippan Randall Bailey and more The Papers of the Henry Luce III Fellows in Theology, 1996 A Music of Grace Jeanne Foster, 1995 In our mid to late twentieth century secular society a most pressing theological question is Where does the dimension of the sacred reside The question is posed here through the poetic worlds of James Wright Anne Sexton and Galway Kinnell each a winner of the Pulitzer Prize In the midst of collapsing values these poets express a longing for a lost world of meaning The author shows how each attempts to re-vision and re-language the sacred without resort to traditional piety Lawrence's process poetics and Whitehead's process theology shed light on the question of the sacred and the poetic response Disguises of the Demonic Alan M.
