Young Luther:

Luther League Review, 1920 "Defender of the Most Holy Matriarchs": Martin Luther's Interpretation of the Women of Genesis in the Enarrationes in Genesim, 1535-1545 Mickey Leland Mattox, 2021-10-01 This work examines Martin Luther's interpretation of the female characters in the stories of Genesis drawing attention to his appropriation of premodern catholic interpretations of the biblical saints In Luther's hands many of these women became heroic examples of the godly life newly adapted to the worldly asceticism of emerging Protestantism Their everyday sanctity exercised for the most part within the limits Luther believed God had imposed on their sex displayed the kind of piety he thought should animate Christian women in their own households Two chapters evaluate Luther's interpretation of Eve noting his understanding of the ideal relations between men and women Five further chapters examine Sarah Hagar Rachel the daughters and wife of Lot and Potiphar's wife Conscience and Other Virtues Douglas C. Langston, 2009-03-02 Conscience once a core concept for ethics has mostly disappeared from modern moral theory In this book Douglas Langston traces its intellectual history to account for its neglect while arguing for its still vital importance if correctly understood In medieval times Langston shows in Part I the notions of conscientia and synderesis from which our contemporary concept of conscience derives were closely connected to Greek ideas about the virtues and practical reason although in Christianized form As modified by Luther Butler and Kant however conscience later came to be regarded as a faculty like will and intellect and when faculty psychology fell into disrepute so did the role of conscience in moral philosophy A view of mature conscience that sees it as relational with cognitive emotional and conative dimensions can survive the criticisms of conscience as faculty In Part II through discussions of Freud Ryle and other modern thinkers Langston proceeds to reconstruct conscience as a viable philosophical concept Finally in Part III this better grounded concept is connected with the modern revival of virtue ethics and Langston shows how crucial conscience is to a theory of virtue because it is fundamental to the training of any morally good person The Lutheran Companion, 1917

Luther's Theology Hans J. Iwand, 2025-01-09 This book highlights the writings of the young or early Martin Luther which separates it from other books on Martin Luther's theology The book sets Luther in radical at times almost shocking contrast with theological and philosophical modernity Reinforced by hundreds of quotations from Luther what emerges for readers is a revision of age old and current ideas of Christian faith into which they are invited Thus Catholicism medieval and modern Protestantism according to Iwand a stimulus to Nazi ideology Lutheranism particularly with its staid doctrine of the Two Kingdoms Liberalism with its personalism and ethics of intention Pietism likewise vulnerable to political mishandling the Quest of the Historical Jesus and Existentialism nourished by Nietzsche and Freud all are subject to confrontation and in all this readers are directly engaged as if by Luther himself In the transfer from classroom lecture to the edited and published book nothing is lost of the original encounter of a master interpreter and student of Luther Year Book of the United Lutheran Church in America, 1919 The Lutheran George Washington Sandt, 1926 Minutes of the ... Lutheran Companion , 1898 Luther's Theology of Music Miikka E. Anttila, 2013-08-29 The sweetness of music is something that has puzzled Christian theologians for centuries In this study Luther s theology of music is approached from the point of view of pleasure It examines the significance of joy beauty and pleasure in relationship with music and Luther s theology The notion of music as the supreme gift of God requires also a discussion about the idea of gift Music opens up new perspectives into Luther s thinking Luther has seldom been reckoned among aesthetic theologians Nevertheless Luther has a peculiar view on beauty understanding faith as a kind of aesthetic contemplation
