Richard English, Charles Townshend

State In Northern Ireland Political Forces And Social Classes:

The State in Northern Ireland, 1921-72 Paul Bew, Peter Gibbon, 1979 The State in Northern Ireland, 1921-72 Paul Bew, Peter Gibbon, Henry Patterson, 1979-01-01 The State: Historical and Political Dimensions Richard English, Charles Townshend, 2012-10-12 Drawing on current debates on secessions within the United Kingdom this book analyses the British State today and looks at its place in the future Featuring original contributions from a variety of disciplines this study tackles the problem of defining and studying the state and looks at the role the nation state has played as the basic political unit in Europe and throughout the world The State Richard English, Charles Townshend, 1999 Drawing on current debates on secessions within the United Kingdom this book analyses the British State today and looks at its place in the future Featuring original contributions from a variety of disciplines this study tackles the problem of defining and studying the state and looks at the role the nation state has played as the basic political unit in Europe and throughout the world Labour and the Politics of Disloyalty in Belfast, 1921-39 Christopher J. V. Loughlin, 2018-02-05 This book provides the first history from below of the inter war Belfast labour movement It is a social history of the politics of Belfast labour and applies methodology from history sociology and political science Christopher J V Loughlin questions previous narratives that asserted the centrality of religion and sectarian conflict in the establishment of Northern Ireland Labour and the Politics of Disloyalty in Belfast 1921 39 suggests that political division and violence were key to the foundation and maintenance of the democratic ancien r gime in Northern Ireland It examines the relationship between Belfast Labour sectarianism electoral politics security and industrial relations policy and women s politics in the city Ireland Joseph Coohill, 2014-03-06 From the first prehistoric inhabitants of the island to the St Andrews Agreement and decommissioning of IRA weapons this uniquely concise account of Ireland and its people reveals how differing interpretations of history ancient and modern have influenced modern Irish society Combining factual information with a critical approach Coohill covers all the key events including the Great Famine Home Rule and the Good Friday Agreement Updated with two new chapters expanding the discussion of pre modern Ireland as well as developments in the 21st century this highly accessible and balanced account will continue to provide a valuable resource to all those wishing to acquaint themselves further with the complex identity of the Irish people The State in Northern Ireland 1921-1972 Paul Bew, Henry Patterson, Peter Gibbon, 1979 Pathways from Ethnic Conflict John Coakley, 2013-09-13 The book begins with an agenda setting introduction which will provide an overview of the central question being addressed such as the circumstances associated with the move towards a political settlement the parameters of this settlement and the factors that have assisted in bringing it about The remaining contributions will focus on a range of cases selected for their diversity and their capacity to highlight the full gamut of political approaches to conflict resolution The cases vary in the intensity of the conflict from Belgium where it is potential rather than actual to Sri Lanka where it has come to a recent violent conclusion in the geopolitical relationship between the competing groups from Cyprus where they are sharply segregated geographically to Northern Ireland where they are intermingled in the extent to which a stable constitutional accommodation has been reached ranging from the Basque Country with a large range of unresolved problems to South Africa which has achieved a significant level of institutional stability This book ranges over the world's major geopolitical zones including Asia the Middle East Africa and Europe and will be of interest to practitioners in the field of international security This book was published as a special issue of Nationalism and Ethnic Politics Terrorism and the State Kieran McConaghy, 2017-08-22 This book investigates the ways in which the particular nature and character of the state can impact upon the effectiveness of counter terrorism efforts and on the trajectory of violent conflicts Here McConaghy not only analyses historical campaigns of terrorism and the response of states to them but also highlights how factors such as emotion intra state cooperation communication and competition have all served to shape conflicts in the past This volume explains what the ramifications of these factors are for academics studying political violence for state elites with counter terrorism responsibility and for individuals or organizations who use violence to achieve their political goals

Ireland and Anglo-Irish Relations Since 1800: From the Treaty to the present Neil C. Fleming, Alan O'Day, 2008 This landmark series of three volumes brings together selected essays from leading and specialist journals that have made a significant or original contribution to Irish historiography Each volume contains a range of articles reappraising the major political themes of the period but also offering new interpretations on social economic cultural and religious history as well as women's history and historical geography Introductions to each volume explain the specific and wider significance of the articles Cumulative Extremism J. Carter, 2019-12-06 This book frames several historical incidents of violent movement countermovement conflicts within the concept of cumulative extremism the mutually reinforcing dynamic of radicalisation that can develop between two or more antagonistic groups Drawing on several in depth case studies including the contests between British fascist and anti fascist groups in the interwar period and from 1967 to 1979 and 1980 to 2000 the Troubles in Northern Ireland from the late 1960s to mid 1970s and Islamist extremists and the far right counter jihad movement in Britain since 2009 this book presents the first in depth academic analysis of the concept of cumulative extremism and constructs a theoretical framework through which to assess its development This is a groundbreaking volume which will be of particular relevance to scholars with an interest in the extreme right social movements political violence and criminology It will also be of interest to policy makers and to practitioners dealing with extremism and radicalisation including youth workers prevent coordinators community support officers and police officers Irish Historiography, 1970-79 Joseph Lee, 1981 The Failure of the Northern Ireland Peace Process Gary Peatling, 2004 This book is a surprisingly broad study of the Northern Ireland conflict and peace process with an unusual and contentious hypothesis though one ultimately likely to prove useful even to those who disagree with it The book is influenced by a sense of the interlacing nature of political groups and dynamics in Northern Ireland which evinces understanding of though not empathy with even mutually exclusive positions in a way few writers on the Northern question draw out This sense that even groups often portrayed as intransigent find a constituency in Northern Ireland based upon the lived experience of groups and communities is underpinned by the book's view of identity and its consequences The book also addresses much discussed wider controversies such as debates surrounding immigration terrorism and September 11th and national identity It addresses these issues with unorthodox conclusions and it is guaranteed to be of interest to intelligent non specialists as well as to academics and policy makers

Regional and Ethnic Conflicts Judy Carter, George Irani, Vamik D. Volkan, 2009

Regional and Ethnic Conflicts Perspectives from the Front Lines provides an alternative vantage point that contributes new perspectives to the study of ethno-political conflict The interest and insights students gain from this book into how complex ethno-political conflicts can be mitigated resolved and prevented give hope to the future From a pedagogical perspective this text is designed to expose students to alternative perspectives It adds realism and insight to students understanding of distal ethno-political conflicts Contributors were purposely asked to discuss a range of factors to bring to light the complexity of ethno-political conflict Their chapters are meant to prod students to internalize the importance of analyzing and understanding ethno-political conflicts from multiple perspectives

Saothar, 1991 Religion, Ritual and Mythology Joaquim Carvalho, 2006

Interpreting Irish History Ciaran Brady, 1994 This anthology aims to provide a record of the debate on the character and purpose of historical writing which has occurred among Irish historians and the tendencies within the practice of history in Ireland from which that debate arose It does not attempt to provide a survey of changing view on Irish political culture in general nor an account of the course of historiographical controversy over particular issues and events

The Catholic Church and the Northern Ireland Crisis, 1968-86 Gerald McElroy, 1991 This study examines the response of institutional Catholicism to the political violence in Northern Ireland since 1968 The book is part contemporary history part study of the attitudes and opinions of Catholic clergy in Northern Ireland and part examination of the Northern Irish Catholic ethos Both in its breadth of reference and attention to detail Dr McElroy's study helps to illuminate a hitherto unexplored but vital aspect of the Northern Ireland Crisis

Northern Ireland's Troubles Marie-Therese Fay, Mike Morrissey, Marie Smyth, 1999 An up to date analysis of the problems faced by Iran's Kurdish population
