the State in Asia Julius Bautista, Francis Khek Gee Lim, 2009-09-11 Christianity is one of the most rapidly growing religions in Asia. Despite the challenges of political marginalisation, church organisations throughout much of Asia are engaged in activities such as charity, education, and commentary on public morality that may either converge or conflict with the state's interests. Considering Christianity's growing prominence and the various ways Asian nation states respond to this growth, this book brings into sharper analytical focus the ways in which the faith is articulated at the local, regional, and global level. Contributors from diverse disciplinary and institutional backgrounds offer in-depth analyses of the complex interactions between Asian nation states and Christianity in the context of modernisation and nation building. Exploring the social and political ramifications of Christian conversions in Asia and their impact on state policies, the book analyses how Christian followers, missionaries, theologians, and activists negotiate their public roles and identities vis-à-vis various forms of Asian states, particularly in the context of post-colonial nation building and socio-economic development. This volume represents a critical contribution to the existing scholarship on Christianity's global reach and its local manifestations and demonstrates the significance of the Asian experience in our understanding of Christianity as a global religion.

The Catechism Explained Francis Spirago, 1899. This Catechism is divided into three parts. The first part treats of faith, the second of morals, the third of the means of grace. In the first part, Our Lord appears in His character of Teacher; in the second, in His character of King; and in the third, in His character of High Priest. And since this Catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth, thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man's high calling and destiny, it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests, self-indulgence, and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many. This Catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of Our Lord's teaching and may be called a guide book for the Christian on the road to heaven.
