Statistical Abstract of Latin America James Wallace Wilkie, University of California, Los Angeles. Latin American Center, 1966 Statistical Abstract of Latin America, Volume 38 ,2002 Statistical Abstract of Latin America, Volume 36 ,2000 Catalogue Des Publications en Série United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland),2001 Statistical Abstract of Latin America, Volume 29 ,1992 Migration, Urbanization, and Development Richard E. Bilborrow, 1998 Internal migration and urbanization are key dimensions of the process of socioeconomic development The unprecedented movement of peoples within the borders of their own countries is one of the greatest transformations witnessed in the 20th century Policy analysts especially those from developing countries where internal migration can be felt at first hand view migration as one of the most important factors affecting the course of development It is within this context that UNFPA convened the Symposium on Internal Migration and Urbanization in Developing Countries in January 1996 in preparation for the United Nations World Conference on Human Settlements in Istanbul in June 1996 The final results of the symposium are found in this book This volume provides a better understanding at global level of internal migration issues of concern to policy analysts Statistical Abstract of Latin America, Volume 38 ,2002 Comparative Education Carlos Alberto Torres, Robert F. Arnove, 2007-09-16 Comparative Education The Dialectic of the Global and the Local Third Edition brings together many of the outstanding scholars in the field of comparative and international education to provide new perspectives on the dynamic interplay of global national and local forces as they shape the functioning and outcomes of education systems in specific contexts Various chapters in the book call for a rethinking of the nation state as the basic unit for analyzing school society relations provide new ways of conceptualizing equality of educational opportunity and outcomes call attention to the need to study social movements in relation to educational reform emphasize the value of feminist postcolonial and culturally sensitive perspectives to comparative inquiry into the limitations as well as potential of education systems to contribute to individual development and social change and provide detailed critical accounts of how various international financial and technical assistance agencies shape educational policy and practice in specific regions of the world Labor Versus Empire Gilbert G. Gonzalez, 2004 The essays in this collection address issues significant to labor within regional national and international contexts Themes of the chapters will focus on managed labor migration organizing in multi ethnic and multi national contexts global economics and labor global economics and inequality gender and labor racism and globalization regional trade agreements and labor Quantifying Sustainable Development Charles A.S. Hall, Patrick Van Laake, Carlos Leon Perez, Gregoire Leclerc, 2000-07-12 Until recently the phenomenal economic development of the Asian tigers Chile and Malaysia as well as the sustained economic growth of the United States painted a very desirable and optimistic picture of free markets fiscal responsibility and more generally the entire dogma of neoclassical economics As of the fall of 1998 however the economies of many tropical countries have contracted severely and the enthusiasm of the developing tropics for the free market and all of its ancillary policies is decidedly cooler Have our traditional approaches to economics been failing the developing world This interdisciplinary book covers the conditions of the developing tropics the resistance of some of their problems to earlier attempts at solutions and the use of new tools to develop a much more comprehensive and empirical framework for analysis and decision making It also presents the development of cutting edge technology that links GIS and modeling approaches with extensive databases on meteorology soils agricultural production and land use The book discusses whether development is sustainable through a synthesis of demographic economic and resource specific considerations Costa Rica is uniquely suited to this study because of its size stage of development democratic institutions and national databases A CD ROM containing all data and programs color images animated models large data tables and references accompanies the book Links economic and biophysical analyses of sustainability Presents new tools and approaches for analysis and decision making Includes a CD ROM containing data and programs color images animated models and references

The Politics of Empire Alan Freeman, Boris Kagarlitsky, 2004-09-20 Bringing together nine leading writers and activists from around the world this book explores the origins of a new age of Empire Writers including Walden Bello Jayati Ghosh Kate Hudson Boris Kagarlitsky and Alan Freeman offer a wealth of factual evidence showing that globalisation has driven apart peoples classes and nations shaping and reshaping key regions of the world Challenging the idea that it is inevitable they argue that its economic contradictions have thrown the world order that sustained it into crisis Globalisation s opponents are shaping a new intellectual tradition For the first time the book brings together the critiques thrown up by resistance to globalisation to war and to imperialism Free from ideology and dogma showing how the peace and anti globalisation movements can join forces and face the coming period of world history

World Bank Latin America Proceedings ,1998 Comparative Education Robert F. Arnove, Carlos Alberto Torres, Stephen Franz, 2012-12-27 Comparative Education The Dialectic of the Global and the Local remains the same groundbreaking book when it first debuted its collection of outstanding scholars in examining the changing transnational landscape of education With the addition of new coeditor Stephen Franz the book provides new perspectives on the dynamic interplay of global national and local forces as they shape the functions and outcomes of education systems The book calls for a rethinking of the nation state as the basic unit for analyzing school society relations and emphasizes the need to study social movements in relation to educational reforms It also emphasizes the value of feminist postcolonial and culturally sensitive perspectives for inquiry into the potential of education systems to contribute to individual development and social change This new edition incorporates recent developments in scholarship especially in education policy and practice the impact of the global economic crisis and a new chapter on education in the European Union
