The foreign investment law aims to make the business environment more investor friendly and address some of the contentious issues between US and China in the ongoing trade war. The book explains how the law enhances regulatory transparency. It also outlines the new approval process that is the pre-establishment negative list system which has replaced the former approval system for foreign investment projects. Mark Cohen,A. Elizabeth Bang,Stephanie J. Mitchell,1999-11-30 The book covers every step a company's counsel or patent agent needs to take from registration of rights to invoking the effective enforcement methods now in place under Chinese law in order to ensure effective protection of copyright, patents, trademarks, trade names, trade secrets, and licensing arrangements in China. Written by a panel of active Chinese trade authorities, including practicing lawyers and academic specialists, the book shows how to transfer intellectual property when investing in China, license products and services successfully in China, challenge unfair trade activities successfully via the US International Trade Commission, and other non-Chinese authorities use Chinese media and communications to foster good, undermine piracy, and secure enforcement use.
