Sukuma Law and Custom Hans Cory,1970 Sukuma Law and Custom, Etc. [With a Map.]. Hans CORY,1953

Sukuma Law and Custom Hans Cory,2018-08-16 Originally published in 1953 this book records the Customary Law of the Sukuma tribe and discusses the differences in law which grew up in the various local federations with the aim of unifying Customary Law for both the Tanzanians and European colonial authorities The material is presented in short paragraphs which are connected logically to each other but each of which can stand by itself if it should be necessary to quote it in a judgment African Widows Michael C. Kirwen,1979 The Craft of Social Anthropology A.L. Epstein,2017-07-05 In social anthropology as in other branches of science there is a close relationship between research methods and theoretical problems Advancing theory and shifts in orientation go hand in hand with the development of techniques and mutually influence one another If the development of modern social anthropology owes much to its established tradition of fieldwork it is also clear that the procedures that anthropological fieldwork should follow in the laboratory can never be prescribed in absolute terms nor become wholly standardized Yet as anthropological analysis is refined it becomes increasingly important that students in the field be aware of the need to collect basic kinds of data and know how to set about doing so In this volume anthropologists who have worked closely together for many years at the Rhodes Livingstone Institute for Social Research Lusaka and or in the Department of Social Anthropology University of Manchester discuss within a common framework modern fieldwork methods as tools for examining a number of problems of current anthropological interest Elizabeth Colson J Clyde Mitchell and J A Barnes stress aspects of the role of quantification in social anthropology and indicate a range of problems that can be illuminated by the use of quantitative techniques Equal importance is attached by all contributors to the collection and analysis of detailed case material a topic explored in J van Velsen s essay A L and T S Epstein V W Turner and M G Marwick consider the kinds of data relevant to anthropological discussion in the fields of economics law ritual and witchcraft and the methods by which such material may be collected The volume is introduced by Max Gluckman former director of the Rhodes Livingstone Institute and former head of the department of social anthropology and sociology University of Manchester Bantu Customs in Mainland Tanzania P. Van Pelt,1977 African Law(s) Salvatore Mancuso,2023-09-29 This book takes a comparative law perspective and proposes a new approach for researching law in Africa Western theoretical perspectives in comparative law are too Eurocentric to fully catch the peculiarities and characteristics of the African lawscape in short they are inadequate for studying African law In this book Professor Salvatore Mancuso considers the law in Africa from a different perspective Deeply rooted in the culture of the African people this approach considers African legal culture with the same legitimacy as Western legal culture setting a precedent for future policy making decisions relating to legislative development in Africa Readings in African Law Eugene Cotran,Neville N.
