Sultans Court:

Sultan's Court Alain Grosrichard, 1998-08-17 A survey of Western accounts of Oriental despotism in the 17th and 18th centuries focusing particularly on portrayals of the Ottoman empire and the supposedly enigmatic structure of the despot's court the seraglio with its viziers dwarfs mutes eunuchs and countless wives Sultans of the South Navina Najat Haidar, Marika Sardar, 2011 Between the 14th and the 17th century the Deccan plateau of south central India was home to a series of important and highly cultured Muslim courts Subtly blending elements from Iran West Asia southern India and northern India the arts produced under these sultanates are markedly different from those of the rest of India and especially from those produced under Mughal patronage This publication a result of a 2008 symposium held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art investigates the arts of Deccan and the unique output in the fields of painting literature architecture arms textiles and carpet Horn and Crescent Randall L. Pouwels, Randall Lee Pouwels, 2002-06-06 A major historical study of Islam among the Swahili Between God and the Sultan Knut S. Vikør, 2005 The contrast between religion and law has been continuous throughout Muslim history Islamic law has always existed in a tension between these two forces God who gave the law and the state the sultan representing society and implementing the law This tension and dynamic have created a very particular history for the law in how it was formulated and by whom in its theoretical basis and its actual rules and in how it was practiced in historical reality from the time of its formation until today That is the main theme of this book Knut S Vikor introduces the development and practice of Islamic law to a wide readership students lawyers and the growing number of those interested in Islamic civilization He summarizes the main concepts of Islamic jurisprudence discusses debates concerning the historicity of Islamic sources of dogma and the dating of early Islamic law describes the classic practice of the law in the formulation and elaboration of legal rules and practice in the courts and sets out various substantive legal rules on such vital matters as the family and economic activity Alur Society Aidan Southall, 2004 Alur Society became a classic for a number of reasons Being much more than a descriptive account of an African society it was the first intensive ethnography to adopt the ideas of Max Weber It pioneered the idea that religion and ritual could be the basis of political action It also showed how state systems could evolve not just on the basis of conquest but as a result of societies without kings inviting those with kings to govern them Author Aidan Southall's theory of the segmentary state was adopted by political anthropologists throughout the subject and also by political scientists being applied not just to Africa but also to India and other parts of the world The book was able to arrive at such long lasting and imaginative conclusions through the use of ethnographic material of a quality rarely surpassed It is moreover arguably the best book in social anthropology of a Nilotic speaking people Southall's own command of their language and his overall scholarly knowledge of Nilotes is also unsurpassed The Sultan and his subjects Richard P. B. Davey, 1897 The Ottoman Empire, 1300-1650 Colin Imber, 2019-01-05 This highly praised and authoritative account surveys the history of the Ottoman Empire from its obscure origins in the 14th century through its rise to world power status in the 16th century to the troubled times of the 17th century Going beyond a simple narrative of Ottoman achievements and key events Colin Imber uses original sources and research as well as the rapidly growing body of modern scholarship on the subject to show how the Sultans governed their realms and the limits on their authority A helpful chronological introduction provides the context while separate chapters deal with the inner politics of the dynasty the court and central government the provinces the law courts and legal system and the army and fleet Revised updated and expanded this new edition now also features a separate chapter on the Arab provinces and incorporates the most recent developments in the field throughout New to this Edition An increased focus on religion and on non Muslim communities More on the provinces and culture An expanded taxation chapter with more on charitable trusts trade and the economy Updated references throughout Report of the ...
