Summer Before Dark:

The Summer Before the Dark Doris Lessing, 2010-11-17 As the summer begins Kate Brown attractive intelligent forty five happily enough married with a house in the London suburbs and three grown children has no reason to expect anything will change But when the summer ends the woman she was living behind a protective camouflage of feminine charm and caring no longer exists This novel Doris Lessing s brilliant excursion into the terrifying stretch of time between youth and old age is her journey from London to Turkey to Spain from husband to lover to madness on the road to a frightening new independence and a confrontation with self that lets her finally come truly of age The Summer Before the Dark Doris Lessing, 1973 Journey Through the Dark Iben Krog Bidstrup, 2004 The summer before the dark Doris May Lessing, 1975 Beyond Innocence, Or, The Altersroman in Modern Fiction Linda A. Westervelt, 1997 In this groundbreaking work Linda A Westervelt defines an important yet previously unidentified and therefore unnamed type of novel the altersroman or age novel Fictions focusing on a protagonist s confrontation with mortality toward the end of middle age are likely to become ever more prominent in a Western world in which the average age of the population increases and more people reach late middle age and old age Working from a diverse sample of modern literature Westervelt analyzes the variety of responses to the life evaluation Some characters achieve a level of affirmation that allows renewal redirection or simply peace while others confront feelings of disgust or despair that so little time is left them Her altersromane are books about seeking wisdom though not everyone of this age becomes wise The use of the term altersroman highlights the fact that the altersroman is a classification comparable to but also clearly distinguishable from the bildungsroman wherein characters make the transition from youth to adulthood Westervelt contrasts her older protagonists characteristics with the equivalent characteristics in the bildungsroman through an examination of Don Quixote part 2 as well as six American novels The Ambassadors by Henry James The Professor s House by Willa Cather The Mansion by William Faulkner The Angle of Repose by Wallace Stegner A Book of Common Prayer by Joan Didion and Jazz by Toni Morrison These seven works though remarkably different share the common features of the altersroman Westervelt articulates the traits clearly rests them on the psychological literature and then shows in depth how the characteristics of the altersroman can enrich and more deeply inform our reading of a significant subset of modern literature that previously went unheralded Readers can use Westervelt s analysis to identify altersromane in literature other than their own and she begins this process by identifying exemplars written in other languages Beyond Innocence or the Altersroman in Modern Fiction introduces readers to the altersroman as a tool for classification and analysis and demonstrates the power and utility of that tool It offers a meaningful and enriching complement to the more established category of the bildungsroman Doris Lessing Gayle Greene, 1994 An original and compelling appraisal of this important international literary figure School Work, 1903 Odisea n° 15 Susana Nicolás Román, 2015-06-02 Revista de Estudios Ingleses es un anuario dirigido y gestionado por miembros del Departamento de

Filóloga inglesa y alemana de la Universidad de Almería con el propósito de ofrecer un foro de intercambio de producción científica en campos del conocimiento tan diversos como la lengua inglesa, literatura en lengua inglesa, didáctica del inglés, traducción del inglés para fines específicos y otros igualmente vinculados a los estudios ingleses.

Philosophy, Dreaming and the Literary Imagination Michaela Schrage-Früh, 2016-10-18 This book explores the intersections between dreaming and the literary imagination in light of the findings of recent neurocognitive and empirical research with the aim to lay a groundwork for an empirically informed aesthetics of dreaming Drawing on perspectives from literary theory, philosophy of mind and dream research this study investigates dreaming in relation to creativity and waking states of imagination such as writing and reading stories Exploring the similarities and differences between the language of dreams and the language of literature it analyses the strategies employed by writers to create a sense of dream in literary fiction as well as the genres most conducive to this endeavour The book closes with three case studies focusing on texts by Kazuo Ishiguro, Clare Boylan and John Banville to illustrate the diverse ways in which writers achieve to translate the experience and language of the dream

Long for This World Sonya Chung, 2010-03-02 Pushcart Prize nominee Sonya Chung has displayed her stunning talent in her award winning short fiction and essays Now she renders the compelling story of a troubled family straddling cultures fleeing and searching in her piercing and profoundly humane first novel In 1953 on a small island in Korea a young boy stows away on the ferry that is carrying his older brother and his wife to the mainland Fifty two years later Han Hyun kyu is on a plane flying back to Korea leaving behind his own wife in America It is his daughter Jane a war photographer recently injured in a bombing in Baghdad and forced to return to New York who journeys to find him in the small town in South Korea where his brothers have settled Here father and daughter take refuge from their demons flirt with passion and in the wake of tragedy discover something deeper and more enduring than they could have imagined Just as Monica Ali's Brick Lane introduced readers to a world that is both exotic and immediate Long for This World illuminates the complexities and the richness of family bonds and establishes Chung as an exciting new voice in fiction
