The Friendship of a Mountain Pascal Bruckner,2023-05-25 Why are we fascinated by mountains These outcrops of rock were once considered unsightly something to be avoided at all costs but since Rousseau they have been contrasted with our corrupt cities and viewed as serene enclaves of beauty and relaxation But why climb to the summit only to come back down again Why does the toil of climbing convert into joy What metaphysics of the absolute is playing out here what challenge does climbing pose to time and ageing to fearful panic to the brush with danger which leads to conquest It s not faith that elevates mountains it's mountains that elevate our faith in challenging us to overcome them These hooded majesties crush some people while exalting others For the latter climbing means being born again reaching a state of exhilaration Being seized by exhaustion upon arriving at the summit is akin to casting your eyes upon paradise Is it the stinging cold the wind so strong that it almost knocks you down or is it higher powers that speak to us in this mixture of terror and beauty A child of the mountains who spent his youth in Austria and Switzerland Pascal Bruckner has special ties to the subject of this book the further he climbs the more he reconnects to his past In sparkling and sensual prose Bruckner's paean to the majesty of mountains weaves together things seen and things read childhood memories literature and philosophy interlaced with reflections on life ageing and the unrivalled beauty of an ecosystem that we are in danger of destroying

Summit, 1957 Lartigue's Winter Pictures Elisabeth Foch, Jacques-Henri Lartigue, 2002 1913 Jacques Henri Lartigue was only nineteen years old when he spent his first winter vacation in the Alps Immediately captivated he became a frequent visitor to the increasingly fashionable resorts of Chamonix Megève and Saint Moritz The photographs that he took there are full of the adolescent wonderment that he was to maintain all his life The exhilaration at being in the mountains and the awe inspired by the ethereal scenery of snowcapped summits are difficult to contain Lartigue was overcome by the dazzle of colorless light that surrounded him I am in the negative of night he wrote in his journal at the time The young photographer's joy was as fresh as it was lasting reinforced by the inexhaustible pleasures of winter sports which he discovered at the same time He photographed all the fun and glamour of European high society at play in the snow intrepid sportsmen and women in action displaying their athletic prowess at skiing ice hockey skating curling bobsleigh His pictures propel us between sky and land skaters twirl skiers jump fir trees sway But the mountains also harbor more contemplative personal moments his honeymoon with his young wife Bibi at Chamonix skiing through silence as soft as down the quiet poetry of a winter landscape Beautifully reproduced in duo tone this collection of winter photographs the majority of which are published here for the first time reiterate Lartigue's position as one of the great masters of twentieth century photography
