Sher explains in his introduction none of Boswell's other close friends straddled Boswell's various worlds his family life and professional career in Edinburgh his lairdship of the Auchinleck estate in Ayrshire his literary life in London in this way The volume while thoroughly documenting the friendship that lies at its core also illuminates the lives of Boswell and Forbes individually especially Boswell's final decade in London. It publishes a total of 111 comprehensively annotated letters, few of which have appeared previously in print: 79 exchanged between Forbes and Boswell between 1772 and 1794 and 32 involving other correspondents. The edition draws extensively on unpublished manuscripts in both the Boswell Collection at Yale and the Fettercairn Papers in the National Library of Scotland, including revealing letters from Forbes to his beloved wife Betsy Lady Forbes and to his close friend James Beattie, who would become Forbes's own biographical subject in the decade after Boswell's death.
