

NIGHT POEMS

Do Not Go Gentle Into That Good Night

Do not go gentle into that good night,
Old age should burn and rave at close of day;

A Poison Tree

I was angry with my friend:
I told my wrath, my wrath did end.

As Soon As Fred Gets Out Of Bed

As soon as Fred gets out of bed,
his underwear goes on his head.

Good-Night

Good-night? ah! no; the hour is ill
Which severs those it should unite;

After Parting

Oh I have sown my love so wide
That he will find it everywhere;

Celebrate

Celebrate our anniversary - can't you see tonight the snowy night of our first winter

Warm Summer Sun

Warm summer sun,
Shine kindly here,

The Lamplighter

My tea is nearly ready and the sun has left the sky.
It's time to take the window to see Leerie going by;

Focusing on Algernon Charles Swinburne's later writings this collection makes a case for the seriousness and significance of the writer's mature work While Swinburne's scandalous early poetry has received considerable critical attention the thoughtful rich spiritually and politically informed poetry that began to emerge in his thirties has been generally neglected This volume addresses the need for a fuller understanding of Swinburne's career that includes his fiction aesthetic ideology and analyses of Shakespeare and the great French writers Among the key features of the collection is the contextualizing of Swinburne's work in new contexts such as Victorian mythography continental aestheticism positivism and empiricism Individual essays examine among other topics the dialect poems and Swinburne's position as a regional poet Swinburne as a transition figure from nineteenth century aesthetic writing to the professionalized criticism that dominates the twentieth century Swinburne's participation in the French literary scene Swinburne's friendships with women writers and the selections made for anthologies from the nineteenth century to the present Taken together the essays offer scholars a richer portrait of Swinburne's importance as a poet critic and fiction writer
