Sunderland in the Great War Clive Dunn,Gillian Dunn,2014 Looks at how the Great War affected Wearsiders from the initial enthusiasm for sorting out the German Kaiser in time for Christmas 1914 to the gradual realization of the enormity of human sacrifice the families of Sunderland were committed to as the war stretched out over the next four years including local Zeppelin attacks and experiences of those fighting for the DLI and other regiments The Great War affected everyone At home there were wounded soldiers in military hospitals refugees from Belgium and later on German prisoners of war There were food and fuel shortages and disruption to schooling The role of women changed dramatically and they undertook a variety of work undreamed of in peacetime Meanwhile men serving in the armed forces were scattered far and wide Extracts from contemporary letters reveal their heroism and give insights into what it was like under battle conditions 100
