Sunrise with Seamonsters Paul Theroux, 1986 Collection of decidedly opinionated articles essays and ruminations spanning two decades Page 4 of cover Sunrise with Seamonsters Outlet, Paul Theroux, 1987-11-25 Sunrise with Seamonsters Paul Theroux, 2005 In this wide ranging collection of his work this traveller of over twenty years tells of his Peace Corps work as a young man working unconsciously for the German CIA through many literary encounters and on to the explicit sexual urges of Mrs Robinson Windows on Japan Bruce Roscoe, 2007 Windows on Japan is a deeply insightful commentary that alternates chapters of physical travel with travel through perception about Japan and challenges the logic of much Western thought about the country that perplexes as much as it pleases The author walked a route that connects the ports of Niigata and Yokohama and from these windows on the world considers perceptions of people and place He also assesses the effect of Japan on writers from Jonathan Swift to Oscar Wilde Shirley MacLaine and Paul Theroux with surprising results The trading entity that wraps its tentacles around the globe converses in most languages and understands most customs is perceptive and urbane and none appears more capable or cosmopolitan Yet the individuals who inhabit these islands take refuge in their language as a private habitat resent intrusions and are captured by a cultural particularism that distances them from others The author discusses this paradox as well as environmental and linguistic issues and topics of history and literature Along the way he lifts a veil on the life of a snow country geisha discusses current events with a priest and a reporter and takes advice on becoming a Japanese Though he is understood it is only on return visits to places he has come to love that he wins acceptance Notes on music delightfully enrich the narrative The Cambridge Introduction to Travel Writing Tim Youngs, 2013-05-27 Critics have long struggled to find a suitable category for travelogues From its ancient origins to the present day the travel narrative has borrowed elements from various genres from epic poetry to literary reportage in order to evoke distant cultures and exotic locales and sometimes those closer to hand Tim Youngs argues in this lucid and detailed Introduction that travel writing redefines the myriad genres it comprises and is best understood on its own terms To this end Youngs surveys some of the most celebrated travel literature from the medieval period until the present exploring themes such as the quest motif the traveler's inner journey postcolonial travel and issues of gender and sexuality The text culminates in a chapter on twenty first century travel writing and offers predictions about future trends in the genre making this Introduction an ideal guide for today's students teachers and travel writing enthusiasts Train Beyond the Mountains Rick Antonson, 2023-04-18 A captivating journey blending memoir history and biography that takes the reader on one of the world's most famous trains and tells of carving the dramatic route it follows while pondering other international railways through the eyes of travellers past and present Rick Antonson has ridden trains in more than thirty five countries but almost everything he thinks he knows about train travel changes when he boards the Rocky Mountaineer with his ten year old grandson Riley As they wind over trestles and through tunnels each mile of track uncovers stories of dynamite and discovery surveyors and schemers explorers and visionaries and the people who helped to build Canada against the odds of geography and politics Surrounded by a wild landscape that sparks imagination fellow passengers recount train travels in other countries get nostalgic for the era of steam locomotives and consider life's unfinished journeys Peppered with spirited dialogue heartrending vignettes and intriguing anecdotes Train Beyond the Mountains is a travelogue with urgency to make your travel dreams happen now As one passenger muses The mistake we make is that we think we have time
