Postborder City Michael Dear, Gustavo Leclerc, 2013-11-12 The postborder metropolis of Baja California stretches from Los Angeles in the north to Tijuana and Mexicali in the south. Immigrants from all over the globe flock to Southern California while corporations are drawn to the low wage industry of the Mexican border towns, echoing developments in other rapid growth areas such as Phoenix, El Paso, and San Antonio. This incredibly diverse transnational megacity is giving birth to new cultural and artistic forms as it rapidly evolves into something unique in the world. Postborder City is a genuinely interdisciplinary investigation of the hybrid culture on both sides of the increasingly fluid U.S.-Mexico border, spanning the disciplines of art and art history, urban planning, geography, Latina/o studies, and American studies. Welcome to Painterland Anastasia Aukeman, 2016-08-09 The Rat Bastard Protective Association was an inflammatory, close-knit community of artists who lived and worked in a building they dubbed Painterland in the Fillmore neighborhood of mid-century San Francisco. The artists who counted themselves among the Rat Bastards, which included Joan Brown, Bruce Conner, Jay DeFeo, Wally Hedrick, Michael McClure, and Manuel Neri, exhibited a unique fusion of radicalism, provocation, and community. Geographically isolated from a viable art market and refusing to conform to institutional expectations, they animated broader social and artistic discussions through their work and became a transformative part of American culture over time. Anastasia Aukeman presents new and little-known archival material in this authorized account of these artists and their circle, a colorful cultural milieu that intersected with the broader Beat scene.

Junk Gillian Whiteley, 2010-11-30 Trash, garbage, rubbish, dross, and detritus in this enjoyably radical exploration of junk. Gillian Whiteley rethinks art's historical and present appropriation of junk within our eco-conscious and globalized culture. She does this through an illustrated exploration of particular materials, key moments, and locations, and the telling of a panoply of trash narratives. Found and ephemeral materials are primarily associated with assemblage, object-based practices which emerged in the mid-1950s and culminated in the seminal exhibition The Art of Assemblage in New York in 1961. With its deployment of the discarded and the filthy, Whiteley argues assemblage has been viewed as a disruptive, transgressive artform that engaged with narratives of social and political dissent, often in the face of modernist condemnation as worthless kitsch. In the Sixties, parallel techniques flourished in Western Europe, the US, and Australia, but the idiom of assemblage and the re-use of found materials and objects with artist as bricoleur is just as prevalent now. This is a timely book that uncovers the etymology of waste and the cultures of disposability within these economies of wealth.

City of Quartz Mike Davis, 2006-09-17 No metropolis has been more loved or more hated. To its official boosters, Los Angeles brings it all together. To detractors, LA is a sunlit mortuary where you can rot without feeling it. To Mike Davis, the author of this fiercely elegant and wide-ranging work of social history, Los Angeles is both utopia and dystopia, a place where the last Joshua trees are being plowed under to make room for model communities in the desert where the rich have hired their own police to fend off street gangs as well as armed Beirut militias In City of Quartz Davis reconstructs LA s shadow history and dissects its ethereal economy He tells us who has the power and how they hold on to it He gives us a city of Dickensian extremes Pynchonesque conspiracies and a desperation straight out of Nathaniel West a city in which we may glimpse our own future mirrored with terrifying clarity Art, Politics and Dissent Francis Frascina,1999 Art Politics and Dissent provides a counter history to conventional accounts of American art Close historical examinations of particular events in Los Angeles and New York in the 1960s are interwoven with discussion of the location of these events normally marginalized or overlooked in the history of cultural politics in the United States during the postwar period San Francisco ,1975 Moonlight Blues Peter Plagens,1986 The Windsor Magazine ,1903 Sunshine Muse Peter Plagens,1999 Still the most readable summary of West Coast art activity Henry Hopkins University of California Los Angeles Still the most readable summary of West Coast art activity Henry Hopkins University of California Los Angeles Journal - The Los Angeles Institute of Contemporary Art Los Angeles Institute of Contemporary Art,1981 The Department of Art at the University of California at Davis Nancy Sue Chambers,1975 Anthology of Magazine Verse for ... ,1925 Art in America Frank Jewett Mather,Frederic Fairchild Sherman,1994-07 The Complete Writings of Ralph Waldo Emerson Ralph Waldo Emerson,1929 Zones of Experience Larry Bell,Albuquerque Museum,1997 By the early 1970s most art history students knew the work of Larry Bell His glass cubes made him world famous his minimalist work along with that of his contemporaries Robert Irwin Ed Ruscha Billy Al Bengston Ken Price and Joe Goode defined the L A Look This retrospective includes Bell s evolving zones of experience the elegant cubes his monumental glass sculptures the furniture and games his vapor drawings and mirage paintings the light and space explorations including photographs of the leaning room his recent Sumer Stickman sculptures and the Fractions Zones of Experience spans the artist s work from the early 1960s to the present and includes a comprehensive biography bibliography Essays are by art historian Peter Frank writer and photographer Douglas Kent Hall former art school classmate Dean Cushman and Larry Bell Anthology of Magazine Verse William Stanley Braithwaite,1928 Vol for 1958 includes Anthology of poems from the seventeen previously published Braithwaite anthologies Currant ,1975 Selected Poems of Craven Langstroth Betts Craven Langstroth Betts,1916
