Tackling Geography Coursework:

Tackling Geography Coursework Ann Bowen, John Pallister, 1997 This text addresses all the elements of geography coursework and fieldwork for GCSE and Standard Grade The main thrust is on the personal investigation planning collecting data presenting and analyzing which is where pupils need most practical help There are tips checklists do s and don ts and summary boxes The structure follows how an enquiry progresses rather than by themes Changing Environments Susan Bermingham, 2000 Designed to help students make the step up from GCSE to A level study this text aims to provide a full range of lively and interesting resources Case studies help to reinforce and illustrate geographical concepts and exam practice has been included Book Review Index, 2003 Vols 8 10 of the 1965 1984 master cumulation constitute a title index Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2007

Cinematic Social Studies William B. Russell III, Stewart Waters, 2016-12-14 This book explores the use of film in teaching social studies moving beyond traditional methods to offer diverse strategies and ideas It includes 24 chapters by notable scholars discussing the value and importance of cinematic social studies The book provides research and rationales for integrating film into social studies education Alone in Antarctica Felicity Aston, 2014-10-14 In the whirling noise of our advancing technological age we are seemingly never alone never out of touch with the barrage of electronic data and information Felicity Aston physicist and meteorologist took two months off from all human contact as she became the first woman and only the third person in history to ski across the entire continent of Antarctica alone She did it too with the simple apparatus of cross country without the aids used by her predecessors two Norwegian men each of whom employed either parasails or kites Aston s journey across the ice at the bottom of the world asked of her the extremes in terms of mental and physical bravery as she faced the risks of unseen cracks buried in the snow so large they might engulf her and hypothermia due to brutalizing weather She had to deal too with her emotional vulnerability in face of the constant bombardment of hallucinations brought on by the vast sea of whiteness the lack of stimulation to her senses as she faced what is tantamount to a form of solitary confinement Like Cheryl Strayed s Wild Felicity Aston s Alone in Antarctica becomes an inspirational saga of one woman s battle through fear and loneliness as she honestly confronts both the physical challenges of her adventure as well as her own human vulnerabilities Effective Schools for Disaffected Students Paul Cooper, 2002-03-11 Disaffected pupils respond well in circumstances where they feel secure where they have a sense of being valued and respected and where they perceive there to be opportunities for them to succeed Effective Schools for Disaffected Students offers insights into how these outcomes might be achieved in both mainstream and segregated settings The investigation is based on the views of pupils who have been excluded from mainstream schools for pupils with emotional and behavioural difficulties The author relates the pupils experiences of the different types of school to research in the area of school effectiveness He offers some practical guidelines on ways in which teachers and managers can work towards reducing disaffection in schools within the real life contexts in which they occur The book will appeal to anybody whose concerns are with the everyday realities of schooling
