The Path to Enlightenment from the Practice of Tai Chi + 站桩Zhàn Zhuāng (pile Stance) Rebecca Ho,Jennifer Ho,George Ho,2018-07-03 This article is the enriched version of the article published in Tai Chi magazine in 2014 It covers many topics regarding the concept of Dong jin understanding the power of tai chi that could lead the practitioners into the Enlightenment stage called Sh n m ng in tai chi The importance of the new health concept called the CranioSacral postural reflex in Tai Chi is introduced in this article The theme of discussion revolves around the following quote from the Theory of Tai Chi by the ancient sage Wang Zongyue around 1771 1853 Zhe sh meaning to have known the movements by heart W comprehend Dong jin Yu from Dong jin step into Sh n m ng without a long period of practice Hu r n gu nt ng cannot obtain a sudden breakthrough into the state of enlightenment to advance into the Sh n m ng stage My translation of Zhe sh meaning to have known the movements by heart W comprehend Dong jin Yu from Ji j step into Sh n m ng enlightenment The chosen tai chi movements have become so well practiced that the practitioner reaches the state of Dong jin which means that the mind body complex has established a new and very efficient pathway in the neural system Using this new mind body complex as the platform of further refinement might lead to enlightenment coveted by so many practitioners One of the benign side effects of this new mind body complex is its health enhancement to release stress with the practice of meditation Sh n m ng is a very vague term that could have quite a few interpretations Sh n as a noun means god It could be an adjective meaning miraculous m ng can be an adjective meaning bright and it can be a verb meaning to understand In the above context I think Sh n m ng means a miraculous upgrade of intelligence Sh n m ng in tai chi is similar to D nw the sudden emergence of direct knowledge in Chan Buddhism This will be further elaborated later in this article I in our modern age after the 2nd World War I have never heard of any tai chi master who has reached this Sh n m ng stage of super intelligence especially when most people practice tai chi as a form of martial arts Most tai chi practitioners are impressed by masters who can demonstrate their superior power to push people flying up in the air This kind of kung fu does not have any practical value in real fighting It has never appeared in a real fight Tai Chi Enlightenment Arthur Romero,2004-01-01 Secrets of the Tai Chi Circle Luke Chan,1993 Tai Chi George Avalon,2009 Tai Chi is far more than a form of self defence The Chinese mystics who created Tai Chi placed within it all their ancient wisdom and meditational practices They then placed the Tai Chi movements in order to create a sequence called the Form The Form is a complete spiritual program which takes a person on a journey from Grounding to Enlightenment This book takes the reader on this spiritual journey and so reveals the secrets of these ancient sages The ancient Chinese divided the cosmos into three worlds the Earth the Psychic and the Spiritual In turn the Tai Chi Form consists of three sections and so does this book The first section of the Form therefore concentrates on the physical how to relax and become grounded At the same time important Chinese concepts are introduced such as the Dao Yin and Yang Chi the Eight Energies Each of these concepts are related back to their expression in the Form The second section of the Form focus on ancient meditations which cleanse the aura and create a one pointed mind This makes a firm foundation for the final spiritual section of the Form In the third section the higher energy centres or chakras are opened Opening the energy centres allows the person to experience the spiritual world gain an understanding of their spiritual self and at the close of the Form to reach Enlightenment
