Take More Joy:

Dare to Take Charge Glenda Hatchett, 2010-09-20 For nearly ten years Judge Glenda Hatchett has delighted TV audiences with a brand of justice that turns the everyday into something eminently watchable Her message can be distilled into the following two words Dare Yourself Whatever obstacles or fears one faces Judge Hatchett's prescription implores readers to write their own story in this life With care and conviction Judge Hatchett uses real life stories from the courtroom and her personal life to counsel readers Shows them how to find their true purpose and gifts to be real about their reality and its potential outside of challenging circumstances and to always be true to themselves Interactive as well as inspirational DARE TO TAKE CHARGE challenges the reader to ask self reflective questions that lead to moments of self discovery and a defined pathway to healing Daring her audience to study the positive with the same interest and intensity that they study the negative Judge Hatchett uncovers the potential for grace and success in lives that are now punctuated with despair and unfaithfulness

With Life of the Author](#) Robert Persons, 1852 The Psychology of Happiness and Well-Being Vali Nasser, 2009-12-11 The Psychology of Happiness and Well-being is not a quick fix guide to happiness. Its main emphasis is to point out the findings on happiness studies that have withstood the rigor of controlled trials. This book demonstrates that several intuitively appealing techniques that show initial promise fail to show the benefits claimed when put to scientific scrutiny. On a more optimistic note, the author investigates a number of tried and tested techniques in the field of Positive Psychology that can actually help us feel happier, as well as techniques in Cognitive Behaviour Therapy that can improve our well-being. This book includes many practical examples as well as activities that individuals can undertake to improve their happiness and well-being. The author has a degree in Cognitive and Social Psychology as well as a degree in Mathematics and Physics. In addition, he has an advanced qualification in Managing Change and has been practicing Mindfulness Meditation for 5 years. Plymouth Pulpit Beecher, Henry Ward, 1882 Annual Report New Jersey.
