Take Care Mama:

Cinder Girl Holly Thompson Rehder, 2022-08-09 Growing up on welfare food stamps and Greyhound buses Holly Thompson Rehder quit school at fifteen to help take care of her mother and younger sister after a devastating car accident Getting married and pregnant soon thereafter like so many other young girls caught in the poverty cycle Holly decided that the life she had been born into was not what she intended to give her child But unlike others who wind up mired in a lifetime of poverty dysfunction and despair Holly used her resourcefulness faith and sheer stubborn American grit to fight her way out of the gutter Two decades later she was a successful businesswoman And today she is a rising political star who serves as an inspiration to young women across the state of Missouri and indeed the entire nation all while never forgetting where she came from She worked her butt off to help so many others born into seemingly helpless circumstances As a rare lawmaker who speaks candidly from raw personal experience in Cinder Girl Rehder rises above standard political prose to provide an unvarnished look inside the worst of American poverty those living in the margins Rehder challenges us to recall the plight of those far less fortunate who struggle without the opportunities most of us take for granted Dangerous Compulsion Gene Grant, 2001-08-01 the dinner party was over as Caroline staggered halfway up the stairs Dropped her wineglass when she leaned on the stair rail Etienne she said Are you going out tonight or shall I wait up for my nightly bang There was a stunned silence then the guests shrugged into their wraps and cloaks as they hurried to leave Dangerous Compulsion is the story of four generations of the Devereaux family that encompassed the years between the Civil War and 1977 The story was told from a different perspective <http://www.imogenegrant.com> Golden River Mae Allen Thornton, 2019-03-27 From love stories dreams and schemes to war stories Santa Claus and local people who became famous Golden River tells dozens of tales covering two centuries and includes the author's own touching personal story It also explains in detail an old custom at country churches in the South the all day singing and dinner on the ground The Bears' House Marilyn Sachs, 2011-10-04 Everyone in Miss Thompson's fourth grade class loves The Bears House Fran Ellen Smith most of all When Fran Ellen goes into The Bears House she can forget about how awful things are at home At the end of the term Miss Thompson is giving the house away but Fran Ellen knows it won't be to her How is she going to get along without a place to hide Juvenile Fiction by Marilyn Sachs originally published by Doubleday Laughter at My Window Blake Parker, 2011-05-16 This is a collection of Blake Parkers songs Blake was a spoken word artist performance poet writer lecturer graphic designer multi media artist and collaborator known for his improvisation and evocative voice As a teenager in the 50s Blake was strongly influenced by the Beat poets who came before him His lively experimental spoken word projects reflect a mature yet quirky genre that is one of the predecessors of today's rap and hip hop As part of the populist spoken word movement his work aspires to an integration of high art low entertainment Blake worked with many musicians using his words and voice as instrument At home Blake played guitar mostly the blues constantly making up songs which were rarely part of his performance poetry There were many variations and improvisations the music was fluid and only some had more fixed ideas with chords During the last years with a terminal diagnosis Blake started to collate the songs in hopes that other musicians and singers would keep them in the world Blake Parkers blues country and gospel songs are a mixture of profound inspiring and humorous lyrics ready to be put to music and sung Check his website www.blakeparker.ca
