Pat Dargan,2019-05-15 Explore the rich history of Limerick in this guided tour through its most fascinating historic and modern buildings The Building News and Engineering Journal ,1904 A Field Guide to the Buildings of Ireland Sean Rothery,2015-02-01 The history of building in Ireland spans more than five thousand years The evidence of these years of building persists throughout the intricate and richly textured landscape of the island In the course of an hour s drive or in some areas a walk strange stone monuments from neolithic times remnants of Early Christian settlements and the romantic ruins of great medieval monasteries can all be seen The streetscapes and skylines of Irish towns and countryside are often punctuated by a stone castle or the pointed spires of various churches On headlands and lonely offshore islands we find the white towers of old lighthouses stone fortifications signal stations of Napoleonic times or even silent deserted villages The long history of the island is legible in the architecture of the past Illustrated by over two hundred pages of delicately detailed ink drawings by the author this is a book for the explorer and traveller encompassing the larger towns and hidden laneways alike The author begins his story of Irish building with the stone cells of Early Christian times and concludes with the architecture of the twentieth century Styles are described and illustrated to help the interested observer identify building types while further examples are listed and located to tempt the curious A Field Guide to the Buildings of Ireland is no mere rehearsal of dates and historical facts but is in itself a cultural monument an enduring stimulus to the awareness of environment and the fascinating legacy of a built heritage Limerick's Fighting Story 1916 - 21 The Kerryman,2009-07-06
