The Captive Heart:

The Captive Heart Barbara Cartland, 2024-01-14 Young and beautiful Sabina Wantage travels to Monte Carlo to meet the mother of her fiancé Lord Thetford. Agreeing to marry him after only knowing him a short time, she soon discovers he is not the man she had first thought. An accident throws her into the path of a wild and exotic tribe of Romany s where she meets the handsome and mysterious Romany king. Thrilled by the fun, excitement and beauty of Monte Carlo, Sabina cannot however stop thinking about the Romany king. When he declares his love for her, she is at a crossroads and left to choose between her heart and her duty. Will she choose her heart and so sacrifice her family and everything she knows or stay and accept a loveless marriage to the rich but brutal Lord Thetford? What she decides and the truths she uncovers is all told in this exciting and wonderful adventure. The Captive Heart, 1946

The Captive Heart Michelle Griep, 2016-10-01 The wild American wilderness is no place for an elegant English governess. On the run from a brute of an aristocratic employer, Eleanor Morgan escapes from England to America, the land of the free, for the opportunity to serve an upstanding Charles Town family. But freedom is hard to come by as an indentured servant and downright impossible when she's forced to agree to an even harsher contract: marriage to a man she's never met. Backwoodsman Samuel Heath doesn't care what others think of him, but his young daughter's upbringing matters very much. The life of a trapper in the Carolina backcountry is no life for a small girl, but neither is abandoning his child to another family. He decides it's time to marry again, but that proves to be an impossible task. Who wants to wed a murderer? Both Samuel and Eleanor are survivors facing down the threat of war, betrayal and divided loyalties that could cost them everything, but this time they must face their biggest challenge ever. Love. The

Essence and the Margin Laura Rorato, Anna Saunders, 2009 With the expansion of the EU and calls for a European constitution, the question of a common European identity has become increasingly pressing in recent times. However, in the face of diverse national and regional traditions and the absence of an obvious European cultural imaginary, the forging of a strong sense of European identity proves problematic. This volume brings together case studies of national and regional images from across Europe which together suggest emerging patterns of identification within contemporary Europe, patterns which may not necessarily amount to a European identity but rather to a European mode of identification. The chronological structure of the volume demonstrates the increasingly problematic nature of national collective memories and past imaginaries in light of emergent marginal voices and images and suggests that it is both from beyond and within the national paradigm that new challenges are now reshaping the cultural imaginary of European communities. Focusing on cultural images within film, literature, national narratives and myths, museum exhibitions and architecture, this volume is of interest to a wide variety of disciplines in the humanities and presents an interdisciplinary approach to questions of cultural memory and identity formation. British Film Jim Leach, 2004-08-30 This book explores British cinema in relation to its social, political and cultural contexts. Each chapter deals with a specific topic and includes close readings of key films from different historical periods Demonstrating the richness and variety of a national cinema that has traditionally struggled to define itself between the paradigms of Hollywood popular film and European art cinema British Film provides comprehensive coverage of British cinema and detailed discussion of specific films that can be used in tandem with screenings Lauder and Gilliat Bruce Babington,2002 Bruce Babington analyses the achievement of one of the central partnerships in British film history the screenwriters of famous films by Hitchcock and Carol Reed who became the producer writer directors of a succession of famous and well loved films including Millions Like Us Two Thousand Women Waterloo Road The Rake s Progress I See a Dark Stranger The Blue Lagoon and The Happiest Days of Your Life This study of the pair is notable both for its contextualising of them within English and British culture over four decades including British cinema s golden age of the war and immediate post war years and for its close reading of films that have been critically neglected despite their popularity Scholarly but not pedantic the book shows its subjects to be not ordinary mainstream practitioners but deceptively serious filmmakers registering the ideological weather of wartime and post war Britain in engaging and creative ways The Captive Heart, the Book of the Film Kenneth Hopkins,1946 The Lasting Influence of the War on Postwar British Film M. Boyce,2012-02-14 Many of the most celebrated British films of the immediate post war period 1945 55 seem to be occupied with getting on with life and offering distraction for postwar audiences It is the time of the celebrated Ealing comedies Hue and Cry 1946 and Kind Hearts and Coronets 1949 Dickens adaptations and the most ambitious projects of the Archers While the war itself is rarely mentioned in these films the war and the conditions of postwar society lie at the heart of understanding them While various studies have focused on lesser known realist films few consider how deeply and completely the war affected British film Michael W Boyce considers the preoccupation of these films with profound anxieties and uncertainties about what life was going to be like for postwar Britain what roles men and women would play how children would grow up even what it meant and what it still means today to be British Shimmering Waters of Gold Joyce S. Savage,2022-09-19 Joyce Savage speaks from the heart in this poetry book which talks about love hope empowerment passion and emotions Open these pages and get comfortable on your couch Feel the emotions and think deeply about the life and the world around you Shimmering Waters of Gold s intent is to inspire impress impact and spell bind its readers Trying to exist in a world that is changing daily The author challenges herself and her disappointments and has transformed them into a literary work known as Shimmering Waters of Gold When nothing but trepidations engulf And life s source sinks like the day stand A beam your face cannot embrace The lips are frozen in a stance Still I hope you laugh I hope you laugh Because there is always tomorrow The New Imperial Histories Reader Stephen Howe,2020-07-24 In recent years imperial history has experienced a newfound vigour dynamism and diversity There has been an explosion of new work in the field which has been driven into even greater prominence by contemporary world events However this resurgence has brought with it disputes between those who are labelled as exponents of a new imperial history and those who can by default be termed old imperial historians This collection not only gathers together some of the most important influential and controversial work which has come to be labelled new imperial history but also presents key examples of innovative recent writing across the broader fields of imperial and colonial studies This book is the perfect companion for any student interested in empires and global history
