The Lost Chronicles of the Maya Kings David Drew, 2002-05-01 An in depth discussion of the latest archeological findings about the Mayan civilization explores the sophistication of this long misunderstood culture and addressing such issues as why the civilization disappeared why they built cities in jungles and more

The Lost Chronicles of the Maya Kings David Drew (television writer.), 1999 Lost Pyramids of Mesoamerica Rhandel Lopez, While most visitors to Mexico visit one of the great Mayan cities it is worth visiting some of the lesser known ruins like Mayapan and Balamku Mayapan is an ancient Maya city in the northern Yucatan Peninsula of Mexico The site has a long history with its first occupation dating back to at least 900 BC and its last occupation dating to around 1450 AD The word Mayapan means Hill of the Jaguar The name refers to the shape of one of three hills that formed it this hill was called Pa Chan Place of the Jaguar It was here that a jaguar deity named Chac reigned When Chac left his post as a god of rain the rain ceased falling on earth for four years until he returned during this time people were forced to irrigate their crops by hand or die from thirst if they failed at growing corn without rainwater overflow from nearby lakes and rivers The city of Teotihuacan is one of the most important archaeological sites in Mexico It was the center of a civilization at its peak around the 1st century B C and was abandoned around 650 AD leaving behind an impressive collection of pyramids and other structures As you explore this site you will discover how these ancient people lived and what they left behind for us to admire today Tulum is a small town on the coast of the Yucatán Peninsula south of Cancún It may not be your first choice if you look for beaches and relaxation But if you want to see some fantastic architecture and walk in the footsteps of the Maya you should definitely make plans to visit Tulum The Mayans built the city between 1200 and 1450 CE Common Era as a seaport for trading with other cultures in Mesoamerica Its popularity rose with increased trade throughout Mexico during this period however it fell into disrepair after Spanish colonization began around 1519 CE when conquistador Hernán Cortés took control over what had been largely autonomous states up until then The buildings are made from limestone quarried from nearby cliffs and from sandstone blocks that were likely carried from much further away by barge or canoe along rivers and lakes since there were no roads The city of Uxmal is a magnificent example of the Puuc style with its buildings built of fine stuccoed brickwork As you explore the site you can see how closely related it is to Chichén Itz and other major Maya sites in the region The Pyramid of the Magician also known as El Castillo is a fantastic pyramid building with 4 sides each having 91 steps and each step 7 feet tall for a total height of 65 feet House of Turtles or Casa del Adivino this building has beautiful decorations both inside and out depicting turtles in different positions some say that these turtles represent wisdom or knowledge Tikal is the largest Mayan ruin in Guatemala and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site The city was the capital of the Maya kingdom of the same name and one of their most potent cities dating back to at least 200 B C if not earlier It was abandoned by the Maya around 900 A D but its temples still tower over the jungle floor today some are even taller than they were when they were first built Palenque Crown of the North is one of the most critical sites in the Maya world Palenque was once a thriving city and capital of one of Mexico's most powerful states It boasts some of the most impressive ruins on this list It was first discovered by a German explorer in 1719 while looking for a site to build his own city The main pyramid at Palenque rises over 70 meters 230 ft into the air and its steps are steep enough to pause even hardened explorers when climbing them There are also two smaller temples nearby and many smaller statues depicting jaguars these symbolize power for humans and gods alike

LOST KINGDOMS OF CENTRAL AMERICA Norah Romney,2021-02-12 Thousands of years ago people settled in the part of the world called Mesoamerica This region consists of southern Mexico and most of Central America as it stretches between what is now called the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific Ocean Although many different countries now exist within this space it was the original home to just one civilisation the Olmec As time advanced other well known groups became dominant in the area These were primarily the Aztecs and the Mayan All these early civilizations that existed from approximately 1200 BCE to 900 CE were steeped with culture tradition commerce and conflict They also offer many mysteries and enigmas to modern understanding These are the things that make people wonder about how the civilisations arose gained such power and why they disappeared Travel back in time to the first days to discover the questions that still exist in the minds of archaeologists historians and others who strive to understand the ancient mysteries of Mesoamerica
