The Love That Ended Yesterday In Texas:

The Love that Ended Yesterday in Texas Cathy Smith Bowers, 1992 Smith Bowers has forsworn rhinestone and sequins but her lines are the more comely for her modesty and more moving too The Georgia Review BELOVED WIFE Norma Nation, 2014-07-23 AUTHOR S NOTE The following is a work of fiction However it is based on a true story It is a tale torn straight from the yellowed pages of history deep in the heart of small town Texas Names dates and places have been changed to protect the innocent if there be any Love should be magnetic Did time begin when two lips melted as one under the hot Texas sun How did the dusty ticking of the clock wrap itself so tightly around destiny The heart quickens as the arrow strikes home Adonis weeps once more Somewhere in the depths of the searing myth the truth beckons from the cold empty grave They will roof their temples with the skulls of their victims What s the good of courage to the snared hare If he moves he dies if he does not move he dies Three Modes of Modern Southern Fiction C. Hugh Holman, 2008 Within the general region designated as The South there are three societies only shadowily defined at their outer limits but distinct and sharp at their centers In these essays C Hugh Holman suggests ways in which race geography climate and religion have contributed to the formation of these relatively definite sub regions He also shows that continuing literary traditions and social attitudes have shaped qualified and to some extent defined the artistic methods and forms which writers in these regions used To demonstrate his thesis he has chosen Ellen Glasgow as spokesman for the Tidewater South Thomas Wolfe for the Piedmont South and William Faulkner for the Deep South A thorough scholar critic Holman approaches his subject positively presenting the impact of these sub regions on three great Southern novelists and showing the distinctively different views of the South which each novelist embodies in his work These essays will prove a useful tool to any student who wishes to understand the nature quality and meaning of the South both as a literary subject and as a personal and often tragic experience A Strong West Wind Gail Caldwell, 2007-01-09 In this exquisitely rendered memoir set on the high plains of Texas Pulitzer Prize winner Gail Caldwell transforms into art what it is like to come of age in a particular time and place A Strong West Wind begins in the 1950s in the wilds of the Texas Panhandle a place of both boredom and beauty its flat horizons broken only by oil derricks grain elevators and church steeples Its story belongs to a girl who grew up surrounded by dust storms and cattle ranches and summer lightning who took refuge from the vastness of the land and the ever present wind by retreating into books What she found there from renegade women to men who lit out for the territory turned out to offer a blueprint for her own future Caldwell would grow up to become a writer but first she would have to fall in love with a man who was every mother s nightmare live through the anguish and fire of the Vietnam years and defy the father she adored who had served as a master sergeant in the Second World War A Strong West Wind is a memoir of culture and history of fathers and daughters of two world wars and the passionate rebellions of the sixties But it is also about the mythology of place and the evolution of a sensibility about how literature can shape and even anticipate a life Caldwell possesses the
