The Thief Who Stole My Heart Vidya Dehejia,2023-10-17 The first book to put the sacred and sensuous bronze statues from India's Chola dynasty in social context. From the ninth through the thirteenth century the Chola dynasty of southern India produced thousands of statues of Hindu deities whose physical perfection was meant to reflect spiritual beauty and divine transcendence. During festivals these bronze sculptures, including Shiva referred to in a saintly vision as the thief who stole my heart, were adorned with jewels and flowers and paraded through towns as active participants in Chola worship. In this richly illustrated book, leading art historian Vidya Dehejia introduces the bronzes within the full context of Chola history, culture, and religion. In doing so, she brings the bronzes and Chola society to life before our very eyes. Dehejia presents the bronzes as material objects that interacted in meaningful ways with the people and practices of their era. Describing the role of the statues in everyday activities, she reveals not only the importance of the bronzes for the empire but also little-known facets of Chola life. She considers the source of the copper and jewels used for the deities, proposing that the need for such resources may have influenced the Chola empire's political engagement with Sri Lanka. She also investigates the role of women patrons in bronze commissions and discusses the vast public records, many appearing here in translation for the first time, inscribed on temple walls. From the Cholas' religious customs to their agriculture, politics, and even food, The Thief Who Stole My Heart offers an expansive and complete immersion in a community still accessible to us through its exquisite sacred art. Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts, National Gallery of Art, Washington, DC.

Power, pageantry, and pride: Queen Victoria ruled the most powerful empire the world has ever seen, covering one-fourth of the earth's land surface, reigning over subjects on every continent and exercising undisputed mastery of the oceans in between. She was the Grandmother of Europe, with descendants occupying the thrones of half a dozen nations and more to come. The very era in which she lived already bore her name. In June 1897, her proud and prosperous nation marked her sixtieth year on the throne of England with the most lavish display of pomp, circumstance, wealth, and affection in its history. Twilight of Splendor presents a breathtaking portrait of a sovereign and her empire at the height of their global power. Focusing on the spectacle of Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee, it combines a thrilling account of that massive celebration with an intimate exploration of Victoria's world, her splendid palaces and possessions, the grand banquets and balls she hosted, her immense wealth, the politicians and courtiers who did her bidding, her confidence and assertiveness as a ruler, her surprising personal humility, and her perpetual state of mourning for her beloved husband, Prince Albert. Based on hundreds of published and unpublished sources from the period, including Queen Victoria's private correspondence and personal journals, Twilight of Splendor is a must-read for Anglophiles, Victorian history buffs, and anyone interested in the golden age of monarchy. The first book to portray the queen and her court in the last years of her reign, it contrasts the queen's private and public images in her efforts to solidify the monarchy. Exposes the queen's difficult relations with her children. Explores the queen's relationship with her extended European royal relatives Draws together for the first time hundreds of disparate sources Includes a number of rare photographs complementing the text Four Great Venetians Frank Preston Stearns,1900 Science John Michels (Journalist),1884 Vols for 1911 13 contain the Proceedings of the Helminothological Society of Washington ISSN 0018 0120 1st 15th meeting The American Garden ,1888 Domestic Annals of Scotland Robert Chambers,1874 American Gardening ,1888
