forward Now I am the lone keeper of all those golden nights Cannon s lines proclaim and it is precisely in these golden moments where the self is saved and not given over to darkness There are many dark figures in Sunspot but their stories are ever pressing into Cannon s ongoing attempt to steer the reader towards redemption and trust that being true to oneself is the answer to feeling lost We are struck by a fearless kind of empathy in these poems which reaches into sadness without pause This is a speaker who can demand the ocean itself Replace my salty tears with that of your own blood and open themselves up to great emotional range By the end of Sunspot everything is opened up and even hope grabs hold of you never letting go
