Test Tube Envy:

Sex, Skulls, and Citizens Ashley Elizabeth Kerr, 2020-03-15 PROSE Awards Subject Category Finalist 2021 Biological Anthropology Ancient History and Archaeology Analyzing a wide variety of late nineteenth century sources Sex Skulls and Citizens argues that Argentine scientific projects of the era were not just racial encounters but were also conditioned by sexual relationships in all their messy physical reality The writers studied here an eclectic group of scientists anthropologists and novelists including Estanislao Zeballos Lucio and Eduarda Mansilla Ram n Lista and Florence Dixie reflect on Indigenous sexual practices analyze the advisability and effects of interracial sex and use the language of desire to narrate encounters with Indigenous peoples as they try to scientifically pinpoint Argentina s racial identity and future potential Kerr s reach extends into history of science literary studies and history of anthropology illuminating a scholarly time and place in which the lines betwixt were much blurrier if they existed at all

Infertility around the Globe Marcia Inhorn, Frank van Balen, 2002-05-30 This exceptional collection of essays breaks new ground by examining the global impact of infertility as a major reproductive health issue one that has profoundly affected the lives of countless women and men Based on original research by seventeen internationally acclaimed social scientists it is the first book to investigate the use of reproductive technologies in non Western countries Provocative and incisive it is the most substantial work to date on the subject of infertility With infertility as the lens through which a wide range of social issues is explored the contributors address a far reaching array of topics why infertility has been neglected in population studies how the deeply gendered nature of infertility sets the blame squarely on women s shoulders how infertility and its treatment transform family dynamics and relationships and the distribution of medical and marital power The chapters present informed and sophisticated investigations into cultural perceptions of infertility in numerous countries including China India the nations of sub Saharan Africa Vietnam Costa Rica Egypt Israel the United States and the nations of Europe Poised to become the quintessential reference on infertility from an international social science perspective Infertility around the Globe makes a powerful argument that involuntary childlessness is a complex phenomenon that has far reaching significance worldwide

Public Administration J. C. N. Raadschelders, 2013-05-16 The book examines the history and development of public administration the study of the internal structure and functioning of government and its interaction with society and its citizens It surveys different approaches to the field and the methodological and epistemological issues surrounding an interdisciplinary applied social science

Science-fiction Studies, 2007 Risk, Culture, and Health Inequality Barbara H. Harthorn, Laury Oaks, 2003-04-30 Examines the diverse uses and abuses of risk by social actors across a wide range of cultural ethnic and geographical locales The introductory chapter by the two co editors analyzes and contextualizes current scholarly debates on the social cultural and political construction of risk It is followed by an overview on the anthropology of harm reduction that outlines an innovative framework for culturally informed risk analysis The remaining nine chapters are organized into three sections The Cultivation of Fear Perceptions of Health Safety and Hazard Risk Makers and Risk Takers and Regulating Risk and the Public's Health The book aims to address a set of questions of theoretical and practical importance to anthropologists sociologists public health scholars and professionals and public policy advocates among others These questions include How do individuals conceptualize and respond to risk Can risk be a tool of empowerment for individuals and communities who define themselves as at risk How has risk figured recently in the production of health inequality Has the social contract to provide care in its broadest sense expanded or contracted around issues of risk Are risk and the imperative to adhere to risk warnings used by experts as a means of social control The volume's contributors medical anthropologists and sociologists provide rich grounded ethnographic case material on the processes at work in everyday social life around the globe as individuals and groups struggle to make sense of the health risks and inequities in their lives and communities Authors address an array of urgent health concerns ranging from food safety to environment new technologies to infectious disease in such contrasting locales as the US Europe South and Southeast Asia and North Africa and across diverse ethnicities and social classes
