McCaslin, 2016-02-10

With Washington on the Brazos Cradle of the Texas Republic noted historian Richard B McCaslin recovers the history of an iconic Texas town The story of the Texas Republic begins and ends at Washington but the town s history extends much further Texas leaders gathered in the new town on the west bank of the Brazos in March 1836 to establish a new republic After approving a declaration of independence and constitution they fled as Santa Anna s army approached The government of the Republic of Texas returned there in 1842 but after the United States annexed Texas in 1846 Austin replaced Washington as the capital of the Lone Star State The town became a thriving river port in the 1850s when steamboat cargoes paid for many new buildings But the community steeply declined when its leaders decided to rely on steamers rather than invest in a railroad line although German immigrants and African American residents kept the town alive Later Progressive Era plans for historic tourism focused the town s central role in the Texas Republic brought renewed interest and a state park was founded The Texas centennial in 1936 and the hard work of citizens organizations beginning in the 1950s transformed this park into Washington on the Brazos the state historic site that serves today as the primary focus for preserving the history of the Republic of Texas CIS US Serial Set Index Congressional Information Service, 1996

The CIS U S Serial Set Index includes an Index of Subjects and Keywords as well as an Index of Names and Organizations There is also a numerical list of reports and documents and a schedule of serial volumes to assist in locating a copy of a document in the serial set once the congressional reference number is known Each reference in the subject index gives the document number the congress and session and the volume in the Serial Set where the document can be found This index gives the most consistently comprehensive information of any of the indexes about where to locate a document in the Serial Set and is an excellent starting point for historical searching House documents , 1877 Engineering and Mining Journal , 1881 Frontier Times , 1930 National Waterways , 1912 The Southwestern Reporter , 1903 The South Western Reporter , 1904
