The Canoe:

The Canoe Eugene Yuji Arima, 2005 A comprehensive history of North American canoe traditions The Canoe Jim R. Poling, 2000 A fascinating historical and cultural examination of the canoe in North American culture There is hardly a river or a lake in North America that was not first seen by Natives and Europeans alike from the gunwale of a canoe Dugout bark craft and skin canoes used in aboriginal North America coureur canoes used by French colonists and the cane and wood crafts used by the Spanish explorers were all used for travel exploration trading and hunting for decades before the invention of the train or motorboat In The Canoe An Illustrated History Jim Poling explores the relationship between North Americans and the canoe as it evolved from being a tool for survival and exploration to its modern day place as a recreational watercraft an Olympic sporting event and a work of skilled craftsmanship With engaging historical accounts of the first canoeists detailed explanations of canoe building a craft that is still very much alive today and more than 80 illustrations and photos the idea of the canoe the role it has played in shaping North American culture is explored in fascinating detail 2000

Canoeing Laurie Gullion, 1994 Includes instruction in basic skills choosing the right equipment safety guidelines and conditioning exercises The Canoe and the Saddle Theodore Winthrop, 1876 Van Norden, 1909 Brunonian, 1892 Bulletin, ... Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum, 1924 Integrated Pest Management for Collections Peter Windsor, David Pinniger, Louise Bacon, Bob Child, Kerren Harris, 2015-01-15 Integrated pest management IPM is not a static approach but one that is constantly evolving Mass international travel climate change and other factors contribute to the spread of new pests and the pests themselves are constantly seeking out weaknesses in our defences An understanding of the threats pests pose to collections and the necessity for a systematic approach to combat them is now firmly embedded in the work of collection care practitioners In addition the trustees and sponsoring bodies of collecting institutions recognise that it is a significant and cost effective element of good collections management 2011 A Pest Odyssey 10 years later describes examples of how the IPM approach has been adopted by large and small institutions around the world and highlights the many lessons learned along the way Principal among these is never to become complacent and tied down to routine processes Another important lesson is the need to ensure colleagues understand and are involved with the process of pest management There is also a need to understand the wider implications of any pest control activity for example the effect of chemical treatments on DNA Coming out of the second Pest Odyssey conference this book will promote wider understanding and implementation of IPM as an integral part of any collection management programme The organisers and editorial team hope that everyone involved with the care of cultural heritage collections and buildings will find something of interest and value in this work Teaching Lifetime Outdoor Pursuits Jeff Steffen, Jim Stiehl, 2010 Do you want to help your middle and high school students become more resilient and patient acquire new skills and sharpen their problem solving abilities while feeling competent and good about themselves If you do then TeachingLifetime Outdoor Pursuits is the ideal tool for you

Editors Jeff Steffen and Jim Stiehl are nationally known physical educators with extensive experience in outdoor education teaching and teacher training They brought together some of the nation s foremost experts in specific outdoor pursuits such as bouldering caving rock climbing and orienteering to craft a book designed for physical educators who either have outdoor programs or who want to use outdoor activities in their traditional PE programs The 12 topics included in Teaching Lifetime Outdoor Pursuits represent the outdoor pursuits that show the greatest growth in traditional PE programs With each pursuit students can challenge themselves and spend time outside of the customary classroom context while sharing an adventure with their teachers that can create a profoundly different student teacher relationship Teaching Lifetime Outdoor Pursuits is a comprehensive resource whose ideas and content can be incorporated into a traditional PE program regardless of geographic location The activities for each pursuit align with NASPE content standards For each pursuit you are given detailed information on equipment needed basic skills and techniques required teaching strategies safety considerations and additional resources In addition Teaching Lifetime Outdoor Pursuits offers clear instruction on what to teach how to teach it and how to assess student learning an attached CD ROM that supplies objectives sample lessons sample assessments and universal programming ideas for each outdoor pursuit presented in the book and information to help you advocate for adding outdoor activities to your program This authoritative resource will help you leave no child inside as you teach pursuits that not only get kids outside now but also help them develop a lifetime habit of outdoor enjoyment
