domineering brother Frank who was doted upon by their mother and beloved by the girls in their small New England hometown including Cal's own girlfriends. In an attempt to escape Frank's intrusive presence, Cal pursues a different kind of freedom in the world's wild spaces prospecting for gold and precious minerals everywhere from the heat of the desert at the Mexican border to the Alaskan chill to central Africa and Colombian mines where he will meet the love of his life Vida. Soon he is dripping in wealth, his pockets full of gold nuggets and emeralds, but the money means far less to him than his independence. To Frank, however, Cash is king. As Cal's success grows, so too does Frank's power and his influence in Cal's affairs, the devastating threat he creates at the center of his little brother's life. And ultimately, when Frank decides to commit the ultimate betrayal, Cal is left with only one final solution. Few writers have as keen an eye for human nature as the inimitable Paul Theroux, and this riveting tale of adventure, betrayal, and the true cost of family bonds is an unmissable new work from one of America's most distinguished and beloved novelists. The Angels Trilogy Lurlene McDaniel, 2012-03-28
