The Lost Hunters Joseph Alexander Altsheler,1920 The Lost Hunters is the second volume of the Great West Series of which The Great Sioux Trail was the first In this story young Will Clarke who has long been a captive among the Sioux and who has risen to high favor has become Sioux himself not only in manners and customs but in thought The world is clothed for him in a new atmosphere and he believes with the Indians that good and evil spirits fill air earth and water in truth all things Hence his eye and mind in this story are the eye and mind of the Sioux It is well known that bear deer and wolf grow much larger in the great valleys of far Northwestern Americans than anywhere else in the world and it may be possible that still more gigantic specimens will yet be found in remote regions The struggle of primeval man with wild beasts carried on for ages is here reproduced in the advent of the Sioux warriors among them armed only with bow and arrow The names applied to animals and inanimate objects in this book are note the coinage of the author but are those used by the Sioux Foreword

The Word Hunters Nick Earls,2013 From award winning author Nick Earls and illustrator Terry Whidborne comes the second book in a mysterious action packed series for the word nerd in us all In their previous adventure Lexi and Al thought they had seen it all time travel epic battles ancient cities on the point of collapse the invention of the telephone and vomiting rats But nothing could prepare them for the realisation that their missing grandfather is a word hunter too and has been lost in the past Only Lexi and Al can save him But how do you find someone in 3 000 years of history With more battles more action and more words these hunters are discovering history like never before as they search for their grandfather the lost hunter neither Roka nor Pehansan trusted it They knew that the great animals seeking their lives would find splendid ambush in these green depths While the young warriors rejoiced at what they saw the two older men were wary and apprehensive
