The Boyne Valley Vision:

The Boyne Valley Vision Martin Brennan,1980 Columbanus Carol Richards,2015-11-23 Columbanus The Dove of the Church not to be confused with his near contemporary Columba of Iona was a towering figure in the religious and political life of Europe in the Dark Ages In this lively biography of the saint Carol Richards evokes the violent and unstable age that laid the foundations for the achievements of the Middle Ages The Stones of Time Martin Brennan,1994-10 The Stones of Time presents one of the most dramatic archaeological detective stories of our time Predating Stonehenge by at least a thousand years the stone complexes of ancient Ireland have been extensively studied yet have refused to give up their mystery The most complete record of Irish megalithic art ever published A Valley of Kings, the Boyne Henry Boylan,1988 The valley of the Boyne River lies pre eminently in county Meath The last seven miles of the river as it flows to the sea forms the border between Meath and Louth Drogheda and Monasterboice both in county Louth are prominently treated by the author as well as the many sites in county Meath The Hidden Maya Martin Brennan,1998 This work explains how Plains Indians used handsigns as symbols for communication and that the graphic signs derived from hand gestures played an important role in the development of writing The author deciphers Maya inscriptions to reveal their hidden messages Ireland of the Welcomes ,1980 Between the Lines Anthony F. Aveni,2000 A FASCINATING OVERVIEW OF WHAT THE LEADING EXPERT AND HIS COLLEAGUES CURRENTLY UNDERSTAND ABOUT THE GIANT GROUND DRAWINGS OF ANCIENT NASCA PERU How the Irish Saved Civilization Thomas Cahill,2010-04-28 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A book in the best tradition of popular history the untold story of Ireland s role in maintaining Western culture while the Dark Ages settled on Europe The perfect St Patrick s Day gift Every year millions of Americans celebrate St Patrick s Day but they may not be aware of how great an influence St Patrick was on the subsequent history of civilization Not only did he bring Christianity to Ireland he instilled a sense of literacy and learning that would create the conditions that allowed Ireland to become the isle of saints and scholars and thus preserve Western culture while Europe was being overrun by barbarians In this entertaining and compelling narrative Thomas Cahill tells the story of how Europe evolved from the classical age of Rome to the medieval era Without Ireland the transition could not have taken place Not only did Irish monks and scribes maintain the very record of Western civilization copying manuscripts of Greek and Latin writers both pagan and Christian while libraries and learning on the continent were forever lost they brought their uniquely Irish world view to the task As Cahill delightfully illustrates so much of the liveliness we associate with medieval culture has its roots in Ireland When the seeds of culture were replanted on the European continent it was from Ireland that they were germinated In the tradition of Barbara Tuchman s A Distant Mirror How The Irish Saved Civilization reconstructs an era that few know about but which is central to understanding our past and our cultural heritage But it conveys its knowledge with a winking wit that aptly captures the sensibility of the unsung Irish who relaunched civilization Archaeology and The Politics of Vision in a Post-Modern Context Vitor Oliveira Jorge, Julian Tomas, 2009-01-14 Archaeology is intimately connected to the modern regime of vision A concern with optics was fundamental to the Scientific Revolution and informed the moral theories of the Enlightenment And from its inception archaeology was concerned with practices of depiction and classification that were profoundly scopic in character Drawing on both the visual arts and the depictive practices of the sciences employing conventionalised forms of illustration photography and spatial technologies archaeology presents a paradigm of visualised knowledge However a number of thinkers from Jean Paul Sartre onwards have cautioned that vision presents at once a partial and a politicised way of apprehending the world In this volume authors from archaeology and other disciplines address the problems that face the study of the past in an era in which realist modes of representation and the philosophies in which they are grounded in are increasingly open to question
