Charles George Herbermann,1913 The History of the Tahitian Mission, 1799-1830, Written by John Davies, Missionary to the South Sea Islands C.W. Newbury,2017-05-15 In the wake of the navigators who finally opened up the Pacific came missionaries traders and finally administrators In the early decades of the 19th century Polynesia was a rich field for the curious and the calculating for writers and adventurers The pioneer European settlers in Eastern Polynesia were ministers and mechanics sent out on the crest of an Evangelical wave the merged with the currents and eddies of trade and whaling to break down the isolation of the islands and their inhabitants Among the pioneers was Welshman John Davies 1772 1855 who spent just over 50 years of his life on Tahiti and neighbouring islands He witnessed the rise of the Pomare dynasty conversion to Christianity reaction to attempts at theocratic government and the gradual encroachment of alien commerce and European rule His colleagues have made their contribution to the history and anthropology of Polynesia Davies himself teacher linguist and careful observer wrote his own story of the Mission its personalities and their contact with the Polynesians from the early phase of disillusionment through three decades of political and economic change destruction and reconstruction From this contact there emerged the uneasy compromise of missionary and indigenous beliefs and institutions that characterized Tahiti and its neighbours before and after the advent of French administration Davies s manuscript History is here edited and annotated supplemented by the writings of other missionaries and presented as a contribution to the literature of the Pacific This is a new print on demand hardback edition of the volume first published in 1961 The Brethren Andrew Miller,2015-02-20 Note from the author Some have raised objections to the title The Brethren as giving the idea of a sect others as arrogating to a particular community that which is equally true of all Christians Such thoughts never occurred to me while writing the book and were not suggested by those to whom I spoke of it Expressions such as the writings of Brethren the meetings of Brethren etc are in common use among themselves which simply mean a convenient designation and one which cannot be misunderstood In no other sense is it used here To be obliged to make use of a description instead of a name would greatly encumber the style and embarrass the writer A M Chapter 1 THE BRETHERN Chapter 2 READING MEETINGS Chapter 3 THE ORIGIN OF THE TITLE PLYMOUTH BRETHERN Chapter 4 FALSE DOCTRINE DETECTED Chapter 5 THE TWO CAMPS Chapter 6 GLEANINGS FROM THE WRITINGS OF BRETHERN Chapter 7 CHRISTIAN POSITION Chapter 8 THE CHURCH OF GOD Chapter 9 THE MILLENNIUM

Recovering the Love Feast Paul Fike Stutzman,2011-01-01 What is a Love Feast How did the early church celebrate the Love Feast How might Christians today celebrate the Love Feast In Recovering the Love Feast Paul Stutzman addresses these questions offering a unique blend of liturgical history and practical theology Part I outlines the history of the Love Feast noting its prevalence in early church worship its gradual decline and its reemergence in the practices of several Pietist groups e g the Moravians Methodists and Brethren Particular focus is given to five elements of the celebration that is eucharistic preparation feetwashing the fellowship meal the holy kiss and the Eucharist proper In Part II Stutzman argues that the Love Feast is a valuable Christian practice and a celebration worth recovering in those traditions that may have forgotten the feast Rather than prescribing a specific method for celebrating the Love Feast Stutzman proposes that there are five key disciplines that today s Love Feasts should embody submission love confession reconciliation and thanksgiving This book encourages Christians from a range of traditions to experiment with reclaiming the Love Feast with the hope that each celebration serves as an act of worship to God and an authentic expression of Christian discipleship
