The Lovelock Version:

The Lovelock Version Maurice Shadbolt, 1980 Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world. Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important. Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre. A wide range of topic entries explore the history, criticism, theory, production, dissemination and reception of the novel. A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world.

Spiritcarvers Antonella Sarti, 2022-06-08 In a land caught between the sea and cloud where the natural landscape still refuses civilization there are those the composers of words tellers of tales that help shape the minds of the people that live on its shores. They are spiritcarvers. New Zealand writing today is engaging in an intent struggle to subvert multiple shapes into voices. These interviews as a record of biographical orature are shaped into presenting the figure of the storyteller through memory and language explorations of how we imagine and create ourselves with and into words. Here we encounter the dichotomy of fiction and non-fiction, myth and consensual reality, imagination and truth. Do we live within our own selected fictions? Identity is shaped by the author's sense of displacement as well as of belonging, meeting otherness with dispossession, discovering connection through isolation. Among the focal points of the interviews are the role of women's writing, Maori writing, interrelations among different cultures and the influence of literary and oral tradition within New Zealand.

Magical Realism and Literature Christopher Warnes, Kim Anderson Sasser, 2020-11-12 Magical realism can lay claim to being one of the most recognizable genres of prose writing. It mingles the probable and improbable, the real and the fantastic and it provided the late twentieth century novel with an infusion of creative energy in Latin America, Africa, Asia and beyond. Writers such as Alejo Carpentier, Gabriel Garcia Marquez, Isabel Allende, Salman Rushdie, Ben Okri and many others harnessed the resources of narrative realism to the representation of folklore, belief and fantasy. This book sheds new light on magical realism exploring in detail its global origins and development. It offers new perspectives of the history of the ideas behind this literary tradition including magic realism, otherness, primitivism, ethnography, indigeneity and space and time.

The Jurist, 1855 The Oxford History of New Zealand Literature in English Terry Sturm, 1998 This is the most comprehensive history of New Zealand literature to have been published. It offers chapters on the novel, poetry and on the short story which have been the staple of earlier histories and surveys as well as sections on drama, non-fiction, children's literature, popular literature and the history of publishing, patronage and literary magazines. In this major new edition material is provided on the period from 1986-1996 and a new chapter has been included on literary scholarship, criticism and theory.
