The Coaching at Work Toolkit Perry Zeus, Suzanne Skiffington, 2002-02-28

Recent studies show that life skills coaching, executive coaching, and business coaching are all effective ways of achieving sustainable growth, change, and development in an individual, group, or organisation. The Coaching at Work Toolkit is the first comprehensive practical resource for coaches in the use of the theories, tools, techniques, and practices that affect learning and change. This book offers coaching tools and psychology-based techniques and is a much-needed guide to understanding the practice of coaching and applying the theories and language associated with it. The employment of life skills coaching, executive coaching, and business coaching is being heralded as the way to create organisations of the future. Anyone interested in achieving their best and staying ahead of the competition should read this book. Through the use of case studies, practical instructions, and application guidelines, the authors have provided models, principles, and techniques that enable professional coaches to achieve breakthrough results. For the past ten years, the authors, first as practitioners and then as educators, have worked closely with colleagues across the globe to develop coaching techniques that produce positive, measurable, lasting change. This book builds upon the success of the authors' first general coaching reference, The Complete Guide to Coaching at Work. This title focused on the nature of coaching, coaching models, and frameworks and the competencies for successful coaches. Suzanne Skiffington and Perry Zeus have trained hundreds of coaches around the world. Through their internationally renowned coach training school, 1 to 1 Coaching School, they have worked with established and new coaches, professionals, and managers, leaders of organisations, consultants, groups, and the academic community.

The Coaches' Handbook Jonathan Passmore, 2020-10-13

This comprehensive practitioner guide provides an accessible, evidenced-based approach aimed at those new to coaching and who may be undertaking coach training for a certificate in coaching or professional credentials or accreditation with the AC, ICF, EMCC, CMI, or ILM. The book will also be useful for those who want to enhance their coaching skills. The Coaches Handbook is edited by Jonathan Passmore, an internationally respected expert and executive coach, with chapters from leading coaching practitioners from across the world. The book is divided into seven sections. Section one examines the nature of coaching, its boundaries, the business case for coaching, and how organisations can build a coaching culture. Section two focuses on deepening our self-understanding and understanding our clients, the non-violent communications mindset, and the coaching relationship. Section three focuses on the key skills needed for coaching, including goal setting, powerful questions, active listening, using direct communications, and the role of silence, emotions, and challenge in coaching. Section four offers a range of coaching approaches, including behavioural, person-centred, solution-focused, psychodynamic, neuroscience, narrative, positive psychology, outdoor, eco-coaching, team coaching, and careers coaching.

and integrated coaching Section five focuses on fundamental issues in coaching such as ethics and contracting and evaluation Section six explores continuous professional development reflection and the role of supervision as well as how to establish your coaching business The final section contains a host of coaching tools which practitioners can use to broaden their practice Unique in its scope this key text will be essential reading for coaches academics and students of coaching It is an important text for anyone seeking to understand the best practice approaches that can be applied to their coaching practice including human resources learning and development and management professionals and executives in a coaching role World Congress on Medical Physics and Biomedical Engineering, June 7-12, 2015, Toronto, Canada David A.
