Irish Children's Literature and Culture

Keith O'Sullivan,Valerie Coghlan,2011-03-17 What constitutes a national literature is rarely straightforward and it is especially complex when discussing writing for young people in an Irish context Until recently there was only a slight body of work that could be classified as Irish children s literature whatever the parameters in comparison with Ireland s contribution to adult literature in the twentieth century This volume looks critically at Irish writing for children from the 1980s to the present examining the work of many writers and illustrators and engaging with all the major forms and genres Topics include the gothic the speculative picturebooks poetry post colonial discourse identity and ethnicity and globalization Modern Irish children s literature is also contextualized in relation to Irish mythology and earlier writings thereby demonstrating the complexity of this fascinating area The contributors who are leading experts in their fields examine a range of texts in relation to contemporary literary and cultural theory and also in relation to writing for adults thereby inviting a consideration of how well writing for a young audience can compare with writing for an adult one This groundbreaking work is essential reading for all interested in Irish literature childhood and children s literature

Daily Experience in Residential Life

Juliet Berry,2025-09-01 First published in 1975 Daily Experience in Residential Life based on questionnaires completed by students during their residential placements breaks new ground with fresh implications for social work training and practice The author first examines daily life experiences of children in a wide range of residential provision with particular reference to methods of handling uncooperative children second to consider effective ways of enabling caregivers to provide helpful rather than neutral or even punitive daily treatment Her findings suggest that children with similar needs differ greatly in the quality of care they receive and that variations particularly in methods of discipline and control depend less upon theoretical principles than upon their caregivers immediate pressures in practice Therefore her major recommendation also applicable to children in foster care day school or at risk in their own homes and to dependent adults either at home or in institutional care is that the caregivers themselves require appropriate ongoing experience of professional support in their very difficult task

"Bare Knees" Flapper Tim Lussier, 2018-10-17 One of the most popular Hollywood child stars of the late 1910s Virginia Lee Corbin was well known to fans worldwide With her mother as her manager Corbin retained her popularity as she grew older She performed in vaudeville for a couple of years before continuing her film career Corbin fit well into the flapper mold of the Jazz Age and appeared in many films throughout the 1920s As she matured her mother found it ever more difficult to control her Corbin led a difficult life After her mother's suicide attempt she found that all the money she had earned was gone Her marriage at age 18 failed and she was eventually separated from her children The flapper struggled to remain relevant in the sound era and was trying to make a comeback when she died at 31 in 1942
