WLS-TV ,1987      The Rise and Fall of Television Journalism Steven Barnett,2011-11-08 This book traces the history of television journalism in Britain from its austere roots in the BBC s post war monopoly to the present day plethora of 24 hour channels and celebrity presenters      Writing Broadcast News Mervin Block,1997 The author offers clear advice and examples on broadcast journalism and elements that distinguish writing for broadcast news from writing for print sources      Broadcast News Writing, Reporting, and Producing Frank Barnas,2013-05-02 Jargon buster convergent journalism Media convergence is the most significant development in the news industry in the last century The ability to interchange text audio and visual communication over the Internet has fundamentally transformed the way news organizations operate Convergence has enabled media companies to gather disseminate and share information over a variety of platforms Throughout the history of journalism it has been common for journalists to study one medium such as traditional print or broadcast and to anticipate a career working only in their chosen field However the 21st century journalist has fluidity to write and deliver news content in a variety of formats source <http://www.convergencejournalism.com> Broadcast News Writing Reporting and Producing presents a solid foundation for any student learning how to become a broadcast journalist in today's world of convergent journalism it is more important than ever that broadcast textbooks cover the most current trends in media Convergent journalism the coverage of news across multiple delivery platforms such as the internet television podcasts ipods blogs etc is here to stay broadcast journalism continues to morph as newer and more advanced content platforms are hatched and developed and broadcast journalists must understand how to write report and produce for multiple platforms simultaneously Just one crucial fact remains students will need training on how to perform successfully in a world in which current events aren't just shown on the ten o'clock evening news Broadcast News Writing Reporting and Producing will be completely overhauled to reflect the trends of convergent journalism on every page New co author Frank Barnas brings a multi faceted perspective of writing reporting and producing that allows for multi platform delivery systems and shows students with real world examples the functions and practices of today's media The new edition will be rewritten and restructured to accommodate common 16 week course modules and will be divided into four major sections of the news gathering writing reporting and producing Sidebars featuring how examples used in the text relate to convergence in journalism help students to draw connections easily between current stories and trends in the industry The comprehensive approach of this text brings a multi faceted perspective of writing reporting and producing that is needed more than ever in today's world of convergent journalism This newest edition is being completely overhauled by the experienced journalist Frank Barnas New photos and illustrations a restructuring of the text expanded end of chapter exercises newer and more relevant examples and more information on producing all contribute to giving readers what they need most a nuanced understanding of how the media of today function in a world without news boundaries Newswriting for the Electronic Media Daniel E. Garvey, William L. Rivers, 1982

Writing Broadcast News Mervin Block, 1987 Thoroughly revised and greatly expanded this new edition is even more helpful than the classic first edition The 1997 revision of Writing Broadcast News Shorter Sharper Stronger is 40 percent longer and even richer and smoother It was written for working newspeople and it is widely accepted in the broadcasting industry as a professional handbook Many college teachers have adopted it as a textbook Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Writing and Producing Television News Alan Schroeder, 2009 Writing and Producing Television News From Newsroom to Air is a step by step guide to the nuts and bolts of writing and producing television journalism Schroeder presents two goals first to familiarize students with the basic challenges and skills faced by television news professionals and second to put these principles into practice through realistic exercises and assignments that puts students into the role of decision makers This comprehensive text employs a running case study throughout the text Schroeder has created the fictional town of Lakedale a medium size news market not unlike the sort of places a young professional might have their first job Many of the exercises are set there and the text stresses the many decisions news journalists must make on a daily basis and stresses problem solving throughout Each topic area is complemented by assignments designed to closely approximate the work of professional television journalists These exercises cover a wide spectrum of material from breaking news to features and they introduce a range of story formats from simple anchor readers and voiceovers to such complex structures as sound bite stories and news packages The text also draws on the insights and experiences of a select group of dedicated professionals who represent the best of TV news in local stations across the country reporters anchors producers assignment editors web journalists graphic artists and newsroom executives
