The Apartheid Reader Ideas In Conflict:

The Apartheid Reader Gary E. McCuen, 1986 Presents conflicting viewpoints regarding apartheid U.S. Relations with South Africa: An Annotated Bibliography Y G-M Lulat, 1990-12-31 A comprehensive two volume annotated bibliography of books and monographs journal articles government documents documents of nongovernmental organizations and substantive magazine and newspaper articles published since the late nineteenth century Annotated entries contain a short abstract a table of contents and information on reviews Each volume contains an author and subject index and a periodical is included in Volume Two Topics covered include US Foreign Policy Southern Africa in US South African Relations Nuclear Technology and Other Sectors of Trade and Economic Relations Education Scientific and Cultural Exchanges African Americans and South Africa Divestment Disinvestment and Sanctions Divestment Disinvestment and Sanctions Comparative Studies This two volume work is part of a larger project that included publication of a nearly 700 page book titled United States Relations with South Africa A Critical Overview from the Colonial Period to the Present which is a critical overview of relations between the United States and South Africa going nearly as far back as the very beginning of their inception as permanent European colonial intrusions and it not only gives attention to the importance of contributions from nonofficial actors in shaping official relations but also considers the impact of the geopolitical location of South Africa within southern Africa where the presence of other nations particularly Angola Mozambique Namibia and Zimbabwe looms large Data Book of Social Studies Materials and Resources ,1987 Character and Identity: Philosophical foundations of political and sociological perspectives Morton A. Kaplan, 1998 Character and Identity Philosophical Foundations of Political and Sociological Perspectives is designed by editor Morton A Kaplan to show despite the fundamental flaws in the classical Greek accounts of truth and knowledge why its quest for rational knowledge remains legitimate and vital to the concepts of character and identity To set the stage Part One includes a statement of the classical Greek position by Dean Jude Dougherty an account of the contemporary anticlassical stories position by John Simpson and an initial attempt to restore the Greek concept of rational inquiry by Lloyd Eby In subsequent chapters Kaplan restates the Greek position and shows why developments in science and philosophy are incompatible with the Greek concepts of truth and knowledge A brief excursus through the history of philosophy is intended to show how the Greek quest can be pursued in a manner consonant with the contemporary realm of knowledge In the course of this argument it will be shown why Leo Strauss who regarded contemporary philosophy as the prisoner of a mistaken seventeenth century paradigm fatally misconceived the role of seventeenth century philosophy and its relationship to contemporary thought Kaplan argues that contemporary philosophy is in large part a response to the breakdown of Hegel a great attempt to provide a modern alternative to Aristotle's synoptic philosophy an attempt that brings history and historicity into the center of the picture Kaplan shows why postmodernism is based on an incomplete and ultimately incoherent understanding of the consequences of the collapse of the Hegelian system and of the character of language In a version of pragmatism that restores the concept of objective truth Kaplan then explores the political and sociological aspects of this philosophical position and shows how it relates to character and identity He then shows how a weakly ordered but relevant position with respect to ethics and morals is consistent with a sustainable contemporary understanding of the quest for rational objective knowledge World Geography Phillip Bacon,1989
