Arabic Christian Theology Zondervan,2019-03-19 Theology is not done in a vacuum Our theology is affected by the culture in which we live and our theology can have unexpected effects on the lives of Christians who live thousands of miles away This point emerges clearly as we listen to seven Arabic evangelical theologians address issues that are of critical importance to Christians living as minorities in the Muslim world North American readers may find that many of their assumptions are challenged as they see how respected Christian thinkers from a very different context address issues of biblical interpretation national and international politics culture and gender

Secular Nationalism and Citizenship in Muslim Countries Kail C. Ellis,2018-01-12 This edited volume examines the importance and significance of the Christian population in the Middle East and North Africa from the rise of Islam to present day Specifically the authors focus on the contributions of Christians to Arab politics economy and law Using the current plight of Christians in the Muslim world Iraq Syria Lebanon Palestine and Egypt the contributors analyze the origins of the crises and propose recommendations and strategies to foster religious freedom human rights and an inclusive political system that ensures equality of citizenship for all communities to participate fully in their societies The Orthodox Church in the Arab World, 700-1700 Samuel Noble, Alexander Treiger, 2014-03-15 All of the texts chosen for this volume are interesting in their own right but the collection of these sources into a single volume with helpful introductions and bibliographies makes this book an invaluable resource for the study of Arabic Christianity and indeed the history of Christianity more broadly Hugoye Journal of Syriac Studies Arabic was among the first languages in which the Gospel was preached The Book of Acts mentions Arabs as being present at the first Pentecost in Jerusalem where they heard the Christian message in their native tongue Christian literature in Arabic is at least 1 300 years old the oldest surviving texts dating from the 8th century Pre modern Arab Christian literature embraces such diverse genres as Arabic translations of the Bible and the Church Fathers biblical commentaries lives of the saints theological and polemical treatises devotional poetry philosophy medicine and history Yet in the Western historiography of Christianity the Arab Christian Middle East is treated only peripherally if at all The first of its kind this anthology makes accessible in English representative selections from major Arab Christian works written between the eighth and eighteenth centuries The translations are idiomatic while preserving the character of the original The popular assumption is that in the wake of the Islamic conquests Christianity abandoned the Middle East to flourish elsewhere leaving its original heartland devoid of an indigenous Christian presence Until now several of these important texts have remained unpublished or unavailable in English Translated by leading scholars these texts represent the major genres of Orthodox literature in Arabic Noble and Treiger provide an introduction that helps form a comprehensive history of Christians within the Muslim world The collection marks an important contribution to the history of medieval Christianity and the history of the medieval Near East Arab Christians in Israel Johnny Mansour, 2012-08 Many resources could be found dealing with the status of Arab Christians in Israel However only a few of them could be considered comprehensive and up to date This has been confirmed by a recent mapping carried out by Diyar Consortium This book aims at creating a reliable database that is essential in developing a shared comprehensive and ecumenical strategic vision for Christian support in Israel so that Christianity survives and thrives This book includes the most comprehensive data to date about the Arab Christian presence in Israel This data includes detailed statistics and charts related to religion birth rates locality denomination age groups gender level of education and employment in addition to a comprehensive directory of all parishes church related organizations and Christian institutions in Israel The Nakba effect on the Arab Christians in Palestine represented here in numbers and figures clearly shows that 1948 represented without any doubt a real catastrophe
