Lily Briscoe's Chinese Eyes Patricia Laurence,2013-01-02 A map of the mutual influence of Bloomsbury the Crescent Moon Society and modernism in English and Chinese culture Lily Briscoe s Chinese Eyes traces the romance of Julian Bell nephew of Virginia Woolf and Ling Shuhua a writer and painter Bell met while teaching at Wuhan University in China in 1935 Relying on a wide selection of previously unpublished writings Patricia Laurence places Ling often referred to as the Chinese Katherine Mansfield squarely in the Bloomsbury constellation In doing so she counters East West polarities and suggests forms of understanding to inaugurate a new kind of cultural criticism and literary description Laurence expands her examination of Bell and Ling s relationship into a study of parallel literary communities Bloomsbury in England and the Crescent Moon group in China Underscoring their reciprocal influences in the early part of the twentieth century Laurence presents conversations among well known British and Chinese writers artists and historians including Virginia Woolf Vanessa Bell G L Dickinson Xu Zhimo E M Forster and Xiao Qian In addition Laurence s study includes rarely seen photographs of Julian Bell Ling and their associates as well as a reproduction of Ling s scroll commemorating moments in the exchange between Bloomsbury and the Crescent Moon group While many critics agree that modernism is a movement that crosses national boundaries literary studies rarely reflect such a view In this volume Laurence links unpublished letters and documents cultural artifacts art literature and people in ways that provide illumination from a comparative cultural and aesthetic perspective In so doing she addresses the geographical and critical imbalances and thus the architecture of modernist postcolonial Bloomsbury and Asian studies by placing China in an aesthetic matrix of a developing international
