A Consuming Faith Susan Curtis, 2001 In A Consuming Faith Susan Curtis analyzes the startling convergence of two events previously treated independently the emergence of a modern consumer oriented culture and the rise of the social gospel movement By examining the lives and works of individuals who identified themselves as social gospellers rather than just groups or individuals who fit a particular definition Curtis is able to capture the very fluidity of the term social gospel as it was used In addition to exploring the time in which the movement took shape Curtis provides biographical sketches of traditional figures involved in various aspects of the social gospel movement such as Walter Rauschenbusch Washington Gladden and Josiah Strong alongside those of less prominent figures like Charles Jefferson Elizabeth Stuart Phelps and Charles Macfarland Going beyond their roles in the movement Curtis shows them to be sons and daughters husbands and wives and workers and citizens who experienced the vast changes in their world wrought by industrialization and class conflict even as they sought to define a meaningful religious life The result of their quest was a redefinition of Protestantism that contributed to an evolving public discourse and culture This groundbreaking study now with a new preface by Curtis provides an illuminating look at culture and religion as interdependent influences and treats religious life as an integral part of American culture not a sacred world apart from the secular A Consuming Faith will be of interest to anyone who strives to understand not only the social and cultural history of America in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries but also the origins of modern America

John Gerstner and the Renewal of Presbyterian and Reformed Evangelicalism in Modern America Jeff McDonald, 2017-11-09 John Gerstner 1914-96 was a significant leader in the renewal of Presbyterian and Reformed evangelicalism in America during the second half of the twentieth century Gerstner's work as a church historian sought to shape evangelicalism but also northern mainline Presbyterianism In order to promote evangelical thought he wrote taught lectured debated and preached widely In pursuing his aims he promoted the work of the great colonial theologian Jonathan Edwards He also defended and endorsed biblical inerrancy and the Old Princeton theology Gerstner was a sharp critic of theological modernism and what he considered its negative influence on the church Part of Gerstner's fame was his active participation in mainline Presbyterianism and in so many of the smaller Presbyterian denominations and in the wider evangelical movement His renewal efforts within the United Presbyterian Church USA later PCUSA were largely a failure but they did contribute to the surprising resurgence of Presbyterian and Reformed evangelicalism Evangelical marginalization in the mainline led Gerstner and other evangelicals to redirect their energy into new evangelical institutions groups and denominations Gerstner's evangelical United Presbyterian Church of North America UPCNA background influenced the young scholar and the legacy of the UPCNA's heritage can be detected in the popular forms of the Presbyterian and Reformed evangelical movement that exist today Moreover he was significant for the revival of Reformed teaching beyond the bounds of Presbyterianism This book establishes Gerstner's significance in American church history and provides a thorough analysis of the evangelical movement he sought to reinvigorate

Protestant, Catholic, Jew Will Herberg, 2012-06-20 The most honored discussion of American religion in mid twentieth century times is Will Herberg's Protestant Catholic Jew It spoke precisely to the mid century condition and speaks in still applicable ways to the American condition and at its best the human condition Martin E Marty from the Introduction In Protestant Catholic Jew Will Herberg has written the most fascinating essay on the religious sociology of America that has appeared in decades He has digested all the relevant historical sociological and other analytical studies but the product is no mere summary of previous findings He has made these findings the basis of a new and creative approach to the American scene It throws as much light on American society as a whole as it does on the peculiarly religious aspects of American life Mr Herberg illumines many facets of the American reality and each chapter presents surprising and yet very compelling theses about the religious life of this country Of all these perhaps the most telling is his thesis that America is not so much a melting pot as three fairly separate melting pots Reinhold Niebuhr New Yorks Times Book Review Monthly Bulletin San Francisco Public Library, 1919 Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress.
